Lincoln County's Friend.
Republican Candidate for Congress
First District

BINGER HERMANN
VOTE FOR HIM

Abbreviated Memory.

THE LEADER has not time at this late hour in the week to touch upon all the points in Mr. Hawkins' latest spill-over. However, we will briefly state that Messrs. Clark Copeland, E. M. Stanton, County Clerk Wade and several other reputable citizens are ready to make affidavit that Mr. Kyniston told them, or said in their presence, that Mr. Hawkins asked him (Mr. Kyniston) to vote for Hurley Lutz.

The alleged report that Binger Hermann is in disfavor with the administration worries the Democratic leaders and newspapers more than it does the Republicans. Mr. Hermann will be elected by a big majority, and it will not be a black eye to the administration, either.

Merchant Henry Lewis visited Albany Monday. Miss Anna Alexander, head clerk, was assisted by George Ethers during the absence of the boss.

Henry Lewis has just received a large stock of shoes, manufactured by the old reliable firm of Buckingham & Hecht. He invites you to call and inspect them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larsen left this morning for their home in Portland. Mr. Larsen has been indulging in a layoff on account of the industrial troubles in Portland.

Banker Thomas Leese of Corvallis and his friend John McPhail of Schreiber, Ont., were in the city the fore part of the week. They returned to Corvallis Wednesday morning.

Emanuel Johnson, recently from Chicago, has entered into partnership with Van Burkleo, the photographer. Mr. Johnson has an artistic eye—two of 'em—and will soon rank among the good ones.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Swope returned Wednesday from the lower Siletz country, where he was called by a hog-killing case, G. S. Parmels being the killer. The case will come up in circuit court.

Siletz Siftings.

Everything very quiet politically. Lester Wanh was over on business Wednesday.

Mrs. George Wilbur has been on the sick list for several weeks.

Will and Frances Alexander were visiting their parents a few days.

Kelsey Baker is very sick at the lower farm with small hopes of recovery.

John Spencer, Billy Metcalf and others are busy cutting wood for the Government.

Major McKoin has made many improvements in the kitchen department of the school.

Some of the highest grade and the neatest bundles of shingles are being produced at the mill in Siletz.

L. D. Wood is with us for a short time looking after the interests of his stock. He left today for the lower Siletz.

Interest money to minors and the first payment of $75 to some who just become of age helps considerably at this time of the year.

Ellen Sypneski a young lady is at Micek's hostelry awaiting the coming of her parents, who will make their home in Lincoln county.

Tom Jackson and John Micek scowed some parties and about 1000 pounds of provisions down the river as far as Canoe Landing Wednesday.

Something went wrong with the conveyance of Dr. Wetmore Monday on his way to Siletz and he and Miss Pearl Hall, who accompanied him, had to walk most of the way home.

Arthur Bensell took his departure for Salem, Chemawa and other valley points Monday in search of another position. We wish him success as he is worthy of the highest esteem and confidence of his employer.

E. T. Hamar of Kansas has assumed his duties as industrial teacher. He is manifesting a large amount of perseverance and pluck and gradually acquiring the appetite characteristic of Siletzites. He is studying the climatic privileges and difficulties here and likes it.

Complaints are growing numerous as to the way the mail is conveyed between Siletz and Toledo. Sometimes with a load of passengers, sometimes on horseback and at other times the Government physician brings it. It is not always on time. Some regular conveyance should be furnished.

All services at the chapel are increasing in attendance and interest. All the employes attend divine services. The Sunday School is equipped better than ever this year with literature and teachers. Special pieces by the choir every Sabbath. "Beyond the Gates of Paradise" by Mrs. Bryant Sunday morning. Come and encourage the good work by your presence.

Farewell socials were given Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in honor of Harry McKoin, who, in the short time he has been with us, has made many friends. Business interests in Needles, California, requires his immediate attention. It leaves a gap in our social fabric difficult to patch. He is a wide-awake business fellow, and merits the good wishes that follow him.

The social life at Siletz and the school is fast assuming its old-time vigor and conditions. Not a week passes but some of the employes entertain in their rooms, and once every week Major McKoin, who inspires everyone with his cheerfulness, yet is a rigid disciplinarian, has the entire force and school together to consult over and consider ways and means for improvement. The musical accomplishments of Prof. Gates is a great attraction and pleasure for the boys and girls. They crowd around him daily to hear him play. He is giving several lessons free.
