

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume XI.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, May 1, 1903.

Number 9

A Wonderful Country.

F. J. Parker has returned home from his big ranch on Big Elk river, Lincoln county, Oregon. He says new settlers are coming into that country buying land and farms right and left. All are satisfied and none of the newcomers would take twice the price they paid for their farms. There are no insect pests in that country despite the fact that the oldest apple orchards in the state are there. Spraying or irrigation is necessary. There are good coal prospects exist in the country has taken a renewed interest in enterprise. The land in Lincoln county has been tied up for 20 years by road grants but is now on the market.

Parker says that during the past year he never fed his sheep a bit of the whole time, yet he never lost a single one and they all came out fat. Increase of lambs is something phenomenal and Col. Parker says his average of lambs is 197, and of his only two lambs were lost and one was forsaken.—Walla Walla man.

DIED.

Ma, Oregon, April 29, 1903, Mrs. W. Weber.

Deeply sympathize with her husband, daughter and three sons. Such a woman will be greatly missed, we hope they will all realize that they will meet her again in a world they will never have to endure sad parting again. We also hope will find comfort in knowing that her soul is her gain.

At the spot where our loved one sleeps, sweet the strain that angels pour. Should we in anguish weep? Not dead, but gone before.

MRS. F. BAILEY.

Or., April 29, 1903.

OTTO O. KROGSTAD, Observer.

The street carnival to be given June 10, 11, 12 and 13, under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World will be the biggest thing in the way of a celebration ever seen in Corvallis. Aside from its novelty, it has the attractive features of a Fourth of July celebration and a circus combined. There will be no end of amusement, and visitors will be attracted to this city from a radius of twenty miles. Special rates have been secured over the railroads, and as there will be no counter attractions any of the adjoining cities at that time of year, Corvallis will be crowded with amusement seekers.—Corvallis Gazette.

Don't forget Toledo. Although 62 miles from Corvallis, our large force of choppers and many other citizens will be there.

Sheriff Ross and County Clerk Wade left yesterday morning on a business trip to Albany.

Barber Dandreth returned yesterday from a mixup with work on his homestead. He is still alive.

Say, gentlemen, if you happen to be looking for a bargain while walking along Hill street, just drop in and patronize the tailor, first door south of the barber shop.

When in Portland this week Dr. Wetmore purchased a 16-foot launch—same model as M. K. Borgen's. The boat will be here soon, and then we'll all get a free ride. The doctor is enterprising.

A. E. Stinson of West Superior, Wis., came up from the lower Siletz country this morning. He is looking over the county with the intention of locating. He will undoubtedly find a satisfactory spot.

THE LEADER's supply of garden seeds is exhausted, several requests being filed too late. We shall remember the disappointed ones next year, when Congressman Binger Hermann sends us a large and choice stock.

One of the best things uttered in America lately was by a Missouri editor in addressing his Sunday school class, the largest in the state: "Fame has taken men from the forge, the plow and the carpenter's bench, but she was never known to reach over a picket fence and snatch a dude out of a ham-mock."—Frankfort (Ind.) Times.

The Jacksonville (Fla.) Times-Union makes this good point about good roads: "It is good policy for a city to bond itself for pavements, why is it not good policy for a state to spend some money, even if it has to issue bonds, for good roads?" Just so. And while money can be had a low rate of interest, it might be well for Lincoln county to give a little thought to this subject.

Sheriff Ross was at Newport Monday night.

A. T. Peterson was a passenger for Portland yesterday morning.

B. F. Jones went to Oregon City yesterday on a business mission.

Postmaster and Merchant Roddy of Winant was in the city Monday.

Arthur Bensell of Siletz returned Monday from a visit at Chemawa.

Call in and see the new silk shirt waists just arrived at Mrs. Wygant's.

Miss Hazel Welch of Yaquina was among the eastbound passengers yesterday.

Dr. J. D. Wetmore returned Wednesday evening from a business trip to Portland.

O. H. Davenport, the dentist, returned this morning from a business trip to Kernville.

The annual teachers' institute for Lincoln county will be held May 27, 28 and 29. The program will appear later.

Fred Dawson, the pill artist, came in from Albany last Friday and proceeded to his farm, in charge of Ade Crosno.

Ed Paine and Al Taylor returned last Saturday evening from a successful trapping expedition in the upper Siletz country.

Just received, a new line of shirt waists—the latest styles and materials; also my school hose have just arrived. The Bazaar.

Assessor R. H. Howell, accompanied by his wife, left Wednesday morning for Corvallis, where they will visit with the former's parents.

John Stevens, the C. & E. superintendent of bridges and buildings, had business in the city yesterday. John's credit is good at our hotels.

St. John's Church—Services next Sunday, May 3. Morning prayer and sermon 11 a. m.; evening prayer and sermon 4 p. m. Rev. F. O. Jones.

The old wallpaper on your walls looks shabby. For one dollar I will sell you sufficient to repaper a room. Over 75 styles to select from at Krogstad's.

A marriage license was granted to Millard Collins and Susie West by the county clerk Tuesday. Both of the contracting parties are from Siletz.

Miss Hattie Gillette returned last week from the valley and has resumed her position in the tailoring department of McCaulon & Plumlee's establishment.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Doran at the parsonage. There will be plenty of work for all members who attend.

Henry Lewis has just received a large stock of shoes, manufactured by the old reliable firm of Buckingham & Hecht. He invites you to call and inspect them.

That tailor first door south of the barber shop is always busy. He guarantees a perfect fit on every garment and is thoroughly up-to-date. Prices reasonable.

Tom Horning informs THE LEADER that Dr. Darnell's launch, the Ruth, will be shipped to Corvallis by rail and then go via the Willamette to Portland, thence to Kalama, Wash.

A fresh coat of paint and some stylish wallpaper help materially to beautify a room. Over 75 styles of wallpaper and all the leading tints of paint to select from at Krogstad's.

Poetry of the Spring is a different proposition from spring poetry. The former is what Bliss Carman, the Canadian singer of lasting lyrics, contributes to Libbincott's May number. He gives five poems of enchanting sentiment and rhythm, dedicated to the season of new life.

Will Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis M. Brown of this city, was married on the 20th of last month at Menasno, Wash. Constable Brown is rejoicing vigorously over this latest addition to his family. He hopes in due time to become the most extensive grandpa in Lincoln county.

Miss Delia Canfield departed last Saturday morning for North Dakota. He father is entitled to much sympathy, for he loses a jewel of a daughter, but some very fortunate young North Dakotan will be a first class wife ahead. We don't know his name, but offer congratulations, just the same.

After Timber.

Harry Baldwin and George Butler of Needles, Calif., arrived Monday evening and departed next morning for the Drift creek country to inspect some timber land. They were accompanied by P. A. Correll of Albany, County Clerk Wade and the editor. The party returned Wednesday evening, the Californians having found claims that suited them. California is noted for its athletes, and Messrs. Baldwin and Butler are topnotchers. Both are quite famous as long-distance go-as-you-please pedestrians, while Butler also excels at pole-vaulting, an accomplishment which he found valuable in the woods when he wished to get over fallen timber. He missed connection once, and as a result carries a black-and-blue spot about the size of a ten-cent cut of Battle-Axe tobacco. The gentlemen are also winners at the table—that is, the dining table—evidence of which can be obtained at the hospitable home of Kasimir Busch or Bill Reidy, the famous French guide. Ira Wade caused some little delay and trouble both going and coming, but THE LEADER was bribed with a pretty bouquet of apple blossoms to say nothing about it.

Newport Notes.

The steamer Roberts arrived from Florence Wednesday.

J. H. Ross and Ira Wade were down from Toledo Monday night.

Captain Wm. R. Wakefield of Waldport was in the city Monday.

Judge Bean and son Harold of Salem spent Sunday at the beach.

S. G. Irvin is building several new cottages at Nye creek for outside parties.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Burrows Wednesday.

Wellington Wright was in Toledo Wednesday for the purpose of making final proof on his homestead entry.

The appearance of the residence property of John Buckley has been much improved by a new picket fence.

Chas. Williams and Archie Bradford returned from Augusta, Wisconsin, to their ranches near Bald Mountain last week.

Mrs. Ida Davies, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. John Stimpson, returned to her home at Tacoma, Washington, Tuesday.

Frank Priest returned from Portland Monday night and proceeded to his homestead up the coast, accompanied by Lee Williams.

The school children are preparing an operetta to be given at the close of the school term. The exact date has not yet been announced.

Rev. Jones, who has been absent a greater part of the winter, has returned, and the regular services will again be held at the Episcopal church.

Mrs. R. B. Fleming and daughter Priscilla of Salem, who have been guests at the Abbey House for the past week, returned to their home Wednesday.

Contractor Fleming has about completed the work of remodeling Loomis Bros.' store building. The floor has been lowered to the level of the sidewalk, a gallery on each side, and new shelving has been put in. The whole interior has been painted and now presents a neat, clean, up-to-date appearance. Loomis Bros. expect to move back by May 1.
