Lincoln County's Friend

Republican Candidate for Congress
First District

BINGER HERMANN
VOTE FOR HIM

Come Again.

Brother Soule in THE LEADER of the date of March 27, 1903, saw fit in a personal attack on myself, while attempting to evade the query of the Reporter, under the caption of "If Not, Why Not?" concerning the matter of printing the delinquent tax lists, to say:

Mr. Hawkins says, in reference to the P. H. Myers incident: "I did what I did at the instigation of our mutual friend Mr. Grogson." He probably also did what he did at the instigation of our mutual friend Mr. Grogson when he urged E. W. Kyniston to vote for Mr. Lutz "as a personal favor" to himself (Mr. Hawkins). And yet he had the nerve to say he "tried to remain neutral." His effort to remain neutral must have broken off the long end of his memory.—Reporter, April 23.

A CORRECTION—A short time ago THE LEADER said, in an article in that paper, that C. E. Hawkins had requested me, as a personal favor to him, to vote for Hurley Lutz for clerk at the June election of last year.

I want to say that the statement is absolutely untrue. C. E. Hawkins never at any time requested me as a personal favor or otherwise, to vote for Hurley Lutz or against Ira Wade.

E. W. KYNISTON.

April 17, 1903.

The above statement of Mr. Kyniston simply shows the depth of human depravity, and we leave it to the patient reader to say who "has broken off the long end of his memory," and how it happened when Bro. Soule wished to locate perfdy, he happened to select Kyniston's name for his bluff, when he had hundreds of other names in the county that he could have used with just as much consistency.—Reporter, April 23.

THE LEADER regrets that it becomes necessary to give its readers a further insight into "the depth of human depravity," mentioned above by Mr. Hawkins. The following will explain our "bluff."

STATE OF OREGON } ss
COUNTY OF LINCOLN }

We, the undersigned citizens of Toledo Precinct, being first duly sworn, depose and say that in The Toledo Reporter of April 23, 1903, appeared an article signed by E. W. Kyniston, stating that Mr. C. E. Hawkins never asked him to vote for Hurley Lutz at the last June election, 1902. We and each of us depose and say that Mr. E. W. Kyniston told each of us personally that Mr. C. E. Hawkins did, on election day while on his way to the polls, stop him (Mr. E. W. Kyniston) and ask him to vote for Mr. Hurley Lutz, the democratic nominee for county clerk.

W. C. COPELAND,

E. M. STANTON,

IRA WADE.

Subscribed and sworn to before me on this 20th day of April, A. D., 1903.

B. F. SWORE,

Notary Public for the state of Oregon.

If this is not sufficient proof of our assertion, we can furnish the sworn statement of several more reputable citizens. We almost agree with Mr. Hawkins when he says we "had hundreds of other names in the county" which we could have used with just as much consistency as that of Mr. Kyniston. We believe his peculiar neutrality was encountered by others—just as it was in 1900, when Elmo Davis was running against Mr. Lutz. We, of course, do not blame the parties of the second part. If Mr. Hawkins insists upon being actively and vigorously "neutral," they can't help it.

An ardent admirer of President Roosevelt who sent him two boxes of cigars the other day, discovered, what the country was unaware of, that the president smokes neither cigars nor a pipe. President McKinley, like Grant, was an almost incessant smoker, and President Cleveland was not far behind. Roosevelt is the only president in many years who uses no tobacco.

A year or so ago the commissioner of patents ruled that the United States flag, and the portrait or name of the president or any of his family could not be used as a trademark. He has extended this ruling now to prevent the use of the national shield as a trademark, holding that "the introduction of the national colors in trademark designs is against public policy, cheapening the emblem in the eyes of the people, and taking from it its patriotic significance and sanctity."

WANT A PIANO?

I am agent for the Soule Brothers Co. of Portland and can sell you a fine piano (20 styles to select from) or an organ, either Estey or Chicago Cottage, at a lower price than can be obtained from any other firm on the coast.

Will also supply you with any other musical instrument you may want. Call and inspect pianos now on hand. GEO. A. LANDRETH.
