Lincoln County's Friend
Republican Candidate for Congress
First District

BINGER HERMANN
VOTE FOR HIM

Still Dripping.

Mr. Hawkins is still spilling more or less over the fact that Mr. Kyniston failed to receive a copy of THE LEADER containing the first reference to Mr. Hawkins' attempt to "influence" him. As that number of this paper contained no reflection upon Mr. Kyniston, we could certainly have no motive in keeping it from him. The reflection, if that's what you please to call it, was upon Mr. Hawkins, and he got that number all right, we believe. So much for Mr. Hawkins' weak attempt to score on a new play.

The yellow papers are still busy telling how the trusts and wicked politicians are planning to prevent the nomination of President Roosevelt next year. Some of these editors, who profess to love President Roosevelt, shed crocodile tears, wear long and sorrowful faces, and declare it's all off in a thousand places; that the big-hearted, brainy and popular President is nearing the end of his remarkable and honorable career. But the people at large are not worrying. If President Roosevelt continues his present policy—and there is no reason for believing he will not do so—nothing can prevent his nomination and election except death. Granting that a few disgruntled politicians and trust magnates desire his retirement into private life, they can plainly see that the sentiment is strongly in President Roosevelt's favor, and they will probably be wise enough to go "way back and sit down; or, as they say in Boston, "back up and squat."

The required 5 percent of the qualified voters of Oregon failed to petition for the application of the referendum law on the Lewis and Clarke Fair appropriation, and the $500,000 will stand. It was generally believed that the legal number of signatures could be easily secured, but the movement was even more unpopular than its opponents supposed it to be.

For a man who has decided to never again be a candidate for President, William Jennings Bryan seems to take a wonderful, not to say unseemly interest in that great office.

The St. Louis Exposition will have no "Midway," but "The Pike." Portland should take the hint and call it "The Beat."

Portland's baseball teams are still being robbed of victory by their opponents and the umpires—principally the former.

The old paint has washed off your house; it looks faded and weather-worn. A little fresh paint will beautify it and make it last much longer. Pure linseed oil and the best of paints at Krogstad's.

For Sale or Trade—1 second-hand buck board and 1 buggy. Will trade both or either for good cow or horse, or will sell for cash. HALL & ANDERSON.

Reduced Summer Excursion Rates.

The Denver & Rio Grande, popularly known as the "Scenic Line of the World," has announced greatly reduced round-trip rates from Pacific coast points for the benefit of teachers who will spend their vacation in the east, and of delegates to all the prominent conventions—N. E. A., at Boston; A. O. U. W., at St. Paul; B. P. O. E., at Baltimore; Woodmen of America, at Indianapolis; Eagles, at New York; Mystic Shrine, at Saratoga Springs; K. of P., at Louisville, and T. P. A., at Indianapolis.

Tickets at the reduced rates will be based upon one fare for the round trip, but will be sold only on certain days. These tickets will carry stop over privileges on the going trip, giving passengers an opportunity to visit Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Colorado Springs and Denver; and will be good to return any time within ninety (90) days. Passengers going via the Denver

& Rio Grande are given the privilege of returning via a different route.

For rate to the point you wish to go, and for dates of sale and other particulars, as well as for illustrated pamphlets, write
