

REGISTER OF THE U. S. TREASURY USES PE-RU-NA FOR SUMMER CATARRH.

Summer Catarrh Afflicts Men and Women

Hon. Judson W. Lyons, Register of the United States treasury, in a letter from Washington, D. C., says: "I find Peruna to be an excellent remedy for the catarrhal affections of spring and summer, and those who suffer from depression from the heat of the summer will find no remedy the equal of Peruna."—Judson W. Lyons.

No man is better known in the financial world than Judson W. Lyons, formerly of Augusta, Ga. His name on every piece of money of recent date makes his signature one of the most familiar ones in the United States.

Two Interesting Letters From Thankful Women.

Miss Camilla Chartier, 5 West Lexington St., Baltimore, Md., writes:

"Late supper gradually affected my digestion and made me a miserable dyspeptic, suffering intensely at times. I took several kinds of medicine which were prescribed by different physicians but still continued to suffer. But the trial of one bottle of Peruna convinced me that it would rid me of this trouble, so I continued taking it for several weeks and I was in excellent health, having gained ten pounds."—Miss Camilla Chartier.

SUMMER CATARRH.

Mrs. Kate Bohn, 1119 Willoughby Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "When I wrote you I was troubled with frequent headache, dizzy, strange feeling in the head, sleeplessness, sinking feelings, faintness and numbness. Sometimes I had heartburn. My food would rise to my throat after every meal, and my bowels were very irregular."

"I wrote you for advice, and I now take pleasure in informing you that my improvement is very great indeed. I did not expect to improve so quickly after suffering for five years. I am feeling very good and strong. I thank you so much for Peruna. I shall recommend it to all suffering with the effects of catarrh, and I consider it a household blessing. I shall never be without Peruna."

For those phases of catarrh peculiar to summer Peruna will be found efficacious.

Peruna cures catarrh in all phases and stages.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Artificial.

He—What lovely flowers! Do you know they remind me of you.
She—Why, they are artificial.
He—Yes; I know; but it requires close examination to detect it.

For forty years' Piso's Cure for Consumption has cured coughs and colds. At druggists. Price 25 cents.

A Fortune in a Clock.

A man in Vienna possessed an heirloom an old clock made early in the sixteenth century. He thought it was worth about $10. One day a stranger came and offered him $400 for it. The owner suspected that if it was worth that it might be worth more, so he investigated the matter. He soon received an offer of $4,000 for it, and finally sold it to the Kensington museum, London, for $20,000.

Flaggle Conference.

"Say, Harker," began Van Albert, "my wife insists that I attend the sewing circle with her tonight. What is the best thing to wear?"
"Wear ear muffs," advised the experienced friend.

Rubber is Easily Killed.

There is no reliable method of preserving rubber except by keeping it in a damp place and away from the air. Exposure to the air and dry atmosphere will kill the best of rubber in time. Oil of any kind is its deadly enemy.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

On a Different Footing.

"A man dat's got a fast hoss," said Uncle Eph'm, "don't keer how off'n he got to git shoes for 'im. Hit's diff'runt if he's got a boy."

"Why do you think the affair is platonic?" "Because neither has any money and both want it."—Chicago Post.

Lizzie—"Does Chimmy know how to make love?" Aggie—"Sure! He hain't been a caddie two years fer nut'n!"—Puck.

Revised Proverb.—Take care of the pennies, and after a while the dollars will take care of you.—Pennsylvania Punch Bowl.

He—Are you superstitious? She—Not a bit. He—Well, then, I can make a clean breast of it. You are my thirteenth bride.—New York Sun.

Kate—Is there much difference in their social position? Nell—Oh, yes. Her father gets a salary, and his father gets wages.—Somerville Journal.

A Pleased Auditor.—Patience—"She says some one was pleased to hear her talk for an hour." Patrice—"Perhaps she was talking to herself."—Yonkers Statesman.

"He's so foolish," said the one in white. "Foolish?" returned the one in gray. "Yes. Why, he wants me to marry him. 'Oh, then he is foolish.'"—Chicago Post.

The Agent—I have a chronometer here which records the millionth part of a second of time. The Busy Man—I haven't got that much time to give you.—Yonkers Statesman.

"How about the rent of this house of yours, Flitter? Doesn't the landlord ask a good deal for it?" "Yes; he often asks five and six times a month for it."—The New Yorker.

Mr. Hippo—Here's a bill for $150 for a dress. Thought you said that goods was only a dollar a yard? Mrs. Hippo—That's correct, but it took 150 yards to make it.—Chicago News.

"Do you believe in luck?" "Sometimes. See that fat woman with the red hat over there?" "Yes." "Twenty-two years ago she refused to marry me."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mrs. Bacon—"My husband is so tired when Sunday comes." Mrs. Egbert—"Why so?" Mrs. Bacon—"He's just got through reading the papers of the Sunday before."—Yonkers Statesman.

"Do minstrels take in this town?" inquired the advance agent of the Colossal Black Cork Troupe. "Well, the last that were here did," responded the inn keeper, sourly.—Chicago News.

"You have great admiration for your wife's judgment," said the friend. "I have," answered Mr. Meekton. "She's the only woman who ever said 'yes' when I proposed to her."—Washington Star.

Palette—"You'd be surprised if you knew the amount of time spent on that canvas." Pellette—"Yes; I understand men have stood in front of it for hours trying to make out what it is."—Yonkers Statesman.

"Who originated the remark, 'It is always the unexpected that happens?'" "I don't know," said the melancholy government attache, "but I suspect he worked in the weather bureau."—Washington Star.

"My gracious! dear," said the Chicago bridegroom, "you were awfully nervous during the ceremony." "Yes, it's my nature," replied the fair Chicago bride. "I suppose I'll be just as nervous the next time."—Chicago Tribune.

Ascum—"How are the plans for your new house coming along?" Subbubs—"Splendidly. My wife has finally laid out all the closets she wants, and now all the architect's got to do is to build the house around them."—Philadelphia Press.

A Bigger Family.—"Yes," Miss Woodby was saying, "my eldest sister married one of the Vanden Clits, of New York." "You don't say!" replied Miss Pepprey; "a first cousin of mine married one of the Joneses of the United States."—Philadelphia Press.

Not Too Precipitate.—"Ah, Jean, dear," she said to the duke, "why don't you go to papa to-day? Delays are dangerous, you know." "Yes, I realize that," he replied, "but I've only known you three days, and these get-rich-quick schemes always seem to be so risky."—Chicago Record-Herald.

She Stuttered.—He stood in the doorway, hat in hand, and the stuttering young lady was inviting him to call again. "Come around S-s-s-s-s," she began, trying to say Sunday, but the sentence was never finished. The dog thought she meant "sic 'em," and he did.—Kansas City Independent.

"What on earth is to become of the Sparks family, I wonder?" "Why, what's the trouble with 'em?" "All hit heavy by the new food craze. Went over the other mornin' and found 'em at breakfast—grandmother eatin' Blank's Food, Sparks' wife tacklin' Dobb's Cereal, and the children divided between ten different brands." "And where was the old man?" "In the stable, eatin' a bale o' hay."—Tit-Bits.

Gray Hair

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for over thirty years. It has kept my scalp free from dandruff and has prevented my hair from turning gray."—Mrs. F. A. Soule, Billings, Mont.

There is this peculiar thing about Ayer's Hair Vigor—it is a hair food, not a dye. Your hair does not suddenly turn black, look dead and lifeless. But gradually the old color comes back,—all the rich, dark color it used to have. The hair stops falling, too. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Their Boasts.

First Boy—My father's going to have a horseless carriage.

Second Ditto—Huh! That's nothing! We've had a coalless furnace at our house all winter."—Boston Transcript.

As Others See Us.

"I wonder if my face will change, too, when I am your age?" asked the sweet girl graduate in a tone redolent with insinuation.

"Undoubtedly, dear," replied the elderly female, "and you ought to be thankful for the loss of a generous portion of your cheek."
