Our Good Neighbors

Waldport Waves.

Miss Addie Harrison returned Tuesday from Monmouth, where she has been attending school for the past year.

Mrs. Marion Ruble and sister, Miss Maud Helms, left Thursday for Portland, where Mrs. Ruble joins her husband and Miss Maud goes for a visit.

Louis Colvin returned from the valley, where he had been for a short visit. He says Waldport is good enough for him.

C. L. Diven has been fitted up with a new post office. Any one desiring lock boxes may get them at a low figure.

Waldport is quite industrious of late with the creamery, and in the distant woods you can hear the donkey puffing.

Ira Bray of Minnie was a caller Wednesday. We always know when Mr. Bray comes to town as it always clouds up and rains.

Mrs. M. J. Tyler returned Saturday from Alameda, Cal., where she has been with her daughters for the past few months.

We are glad to see so many of our citizens returning.

Messrs. Birt Weast, George Bobell and Earnest Everson came up from the Gardiner logging camp to spend the 4th in Waldport and they report more of the boys coming. There must be some attraction in Waldport. That's right.

Salado Items.

The strawberries are almost gone but the cherries, raspberries, gooseberries and currants are ripening.

The hay is almost ready to be cut.

Mrs. Winskill of Elk City was up to Mr. Daniel's on business Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Mr. Gwin made a short call at E. A. Gile's Tuesday.

Several men from Portland were up this way Wednesday.

C. F. Cook has made several business trips to Salado during the week.

Lester Grant of Harlan was a visitor at Mr. Gile's Sunday.

C. M. Brown and family attended the Sunday school which has recently been started over at Mr. Knap's place.

Everett Brown cut his foot on an old scythe some few days ago but is able to be at school again.

Eddyville Items.

Mrs. N. Drummond, who has been quite sick with rheumatism, is getting better.

Miss Nora Derriek has gone to Scio to keep house for her brother, H. E. Derriek.

Mr. Willoughby is building a residence on the land he purchased lately of Wm. Wakefield.

People of Wakefield school district have commenced the erection of a new school house near the line between Drummond's and Aldon's farms on the county road.

The partakers in the party at D. D. Warnock's Friday evening report a fine time.

Miss Mamie Wakefield has returned from her trip to the metropolis.

Vetch and rye are being grown here to the height of six or seven feet. Who can beat it?

By the way Milt Barnes flew up the road the other day, we think his best girl sent for him.

Sheep shearing is nearly finished in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell of Linn county are camped at Eddyville waiting for a repaired wagon wheel and better weather before proceeding to Nye creek.

Rev. Doran preached to interested congregations last Sunday at Eddyville and Wakefield schoolhouses.

Sunday School Picnic.

There will be a basket picnic at Elk City July 7th. The launch Racine has been chartered by Dr. Wetmore to carry the children of the M. E. sabbath school free of charge. Arrangements have been made to take all others who wish to go at 25 cents apiece. Through the kindness of A. B. Clark, H. Terwilliger and Marion Mays, the picnic grounds will be supplied with tables and seats. There will be a program consisting of recitations, singing and speaking. A cordial invitation is extended to all the friends of the various denominations to join with us. The boat leaves at 8 a. m. GEO. BETHERS, Superintendent.

Stop and see the beautiful patterns of summer dress goods, French gingham, mull, Swiss, etc., at Charles Montgomery's. Fourth of July supplies on hand. Come early and get your fireworks. A general line of fancy goods, novelties and jewelry always on hand. Fancy candies and lunch privileges enjoyed by all—Weinewurst, cheese, crackers, cookies, etc. C. E. MONTGOMERY, Siletz, Or.
