Our Good Neighbors

Siletz Sittings.

Assessor Howell was over this way Tuesday.

Harry Chapman and John Adams have lost horses this week.

Professor St. Clair has taken up the work of Professor Dixon at this place and has yet two languages to investigate. He is one of the social "Four Hundred" and is making many friends.

Anna Alexander has been visiting her parents for a few days.

Miss Bertha Hoffman has closed a very successful term of school.

The shingle mill is running to its full capacity in filling orders from our neighboring towns.

Mrs. Arthur Bensell returned Tuesday from Portland, where she has been visiting friends and relatives for the past three weeks.

The interior of the school building has been repainted and presents a very neat appearance.

Government barns have been filled with hay.

A letter from Mrs. Wm. Towner now at Eureka, Cal., states that she is enjoying the fruit season and her visit very much.

The Catholic bell was rung for a long time upon the receipt of the news of the death of Pope Leo XIII.

Our blacksmith is a very busy man during the haying season.

Gardens are doing well. If you want to see one of the best, call on Fred Spencer and ask him to show you.
It is the best in this vicinity and is in evidence as to the large amount of work done.

A large company visited the ranch of E. H. Bryant last week. The drive under the mighty sentinels of the forest was enjoyed. Refreshments were served in the way of red and blue huckleberries and salmon berries.

Alex Davis of the lower farm is about to leave us. His health being very poor. He offers a team, wagon, harness and saddle for $120. Mr. and Mrs.
Davis will be missed very much and we hope Mr. Davis will regain his health and return.

BORN—to Mr. and Mrs. Wm Porter, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spencer, a boy; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koeydar a girl. All are doing well.

Mrs. C. G. Copeland was the originator of a very pleasant social affair Sunday. Siletz was deserted, nearly everyone, with baskets filled with provisions, went to the upper farm and there on the banks of Rock creek under the shade of our magnificent trees they ate their dinners. Boating, swinging in hammocks, chatting, etc., occupied the time until the shades of night began to fall. The ride to and from the upper farm is one of the pleasantest along the coast. It was a happy company and they will go on another excursion soon.

Waldport Waves.

G. A. Savage and family of Grant's Pass have been taking an outing at Waldport, enjoying the salt breezes of the Pacific.

Miss Margaret Stouder has been spending a few days visiting on the Yachats. She returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rencusky and sister of Portland are camped near town for a few days outing.

There was quite a thunder storm passed this way Monday night. The rain descended in large drops about the size of a goose egg, (more or less.)

J. H. Ross was seen on our streets Tuesday and Wednesday having official business down this way.

Rev. Mulligan of Portland and Rev.
Knotts of Albany were with us Sunday.
Rev. Mulligan gave us a fine sermon both morning and evening.

What the campers say: Everybody is happy at Waldport, and why shouldn't they be? With an abundance of fresh sea breezes from off the Pacific, a never failing supply of cold, sparkling spring water from the mountains, an appetite that an elephant would be proud of and a camp full of good neighbors and two babies that cry all night.
Come on and enjoy yourselves.

Salado Items.

C. L. Knapp of Glen called at John Folmsbee's last Tuesday.

E. A. Gile went to Toledo Saturday, returning Sunday evening.

C. W. Brown left Monday for the harvest fields in the valley.

Haying is almost over in this vicinity.
Some of our citizens are planning to take in next Sunday's excursion to the beach.

We received a storm of thunder and lightning last evening but the showers passed by.

Taken Up.

On the premises of the undersigned at Siletz Agency, one black yearling heifer, right ear cropped, left ear small V cut. Owner may have animal by proving property, paying for pasturage and this notice. GEO. NEWBERRY.

The Oregon Flea.

Genus pulex—resembling a hog in shape and character but more diminutive. He is an ardent admirer of humanity, and for pure quintessence of cussedness he is without a parallel.
Even the festive mosquito is not in it with him in the art of phlebotomy.
The aged man he maketh to groan and lament; the young man to rise up and dig. There is weeping and various strange contortions among the maidens, and the wail of the infant is heard through-out the land. Selah! His carnivorous propensities are enormous.
He regardeth neither age, sex, or species.
The high, the low, the rich, the poor; canine, feline, equine, bovine, ursine and porcine, are one and all victims of his diabolical nibblings. Selah!

Popular Sunday Excursions.

In order to meet the wants of the traveling public, and give practically daily service to the beach during the summer season, the Corvallis & Eastern railroad will run an excursion train from Albany, Corvallis and all points west to Newport every Sunday commencing July 12th leaving Albany at 7:00 a. m. Returning leaves Newport at 5:30 p. m. Three day and season tickets will be good going and returning on these trains. This should prove popular with the traveling public and a liberal patronage will be the best appreciation.
