Miss Lena Merriman, a former teacher in the intermediate department of the Toledo school, passed through with the excursionists Wednesday.

O. A. Nord, who purchased the McMillan ranch near Winant recently, departed Sunday for his old home at La Platte Nebraska. He will return about the first of October.

Mr. and Mrs. George Landreth and son Earl, went down to Otter Rocks Wednesday where they will spend two weeks fishing, hunting agates and having a good time in general.

Frank Hyde was down from Eddyville Wednesday. He says business is going some—better in his neighborhood since Willie Wakefield returned from doing jury duty at Toledo, court week.

Mrs. C. E. Hawkins was a passenger for Portland Tuesday morning. She is attending a meeting of the Board of Grand Managers of the Women of Woodcraft, of which she is a valued member.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford and son Fred of Albany accompanied by J. F. Shaw and George McDowell, arrived in Toledo last Saturday evening. They started on an exploring expedition to the mouth of the Siletz river Sunday. Bob Tronson was their guide.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ofstedahl and Miss Clara Olson chaperoned by Charlie Bradeson, left Monday morning for Breitenbush where they will enjoy life for a few weeks. Next to Newport and Otter Rocks, Breitenbush is the most desirable summer resort in Oregon.

Fred Ross returned to Toledo Monday evening from Salem where has been sojourning the past two months. He went down to Newport the same evening to take a squint at the mermaids before resuming hard work—so necessary to his health and peace of mind.

Landlord William Alexander of Siletz was greeting old friends in Toledo last Saturday. Mr. Alexander informs us that he has formed a partnership with John Williams, and will deal extensively in fur and things. The new firm will be known as the Williams-Alexander Fur Company Ltd.

A. T. Peterson has the exclusive agency of Toledo and vicinity for the famous International Stock Food. It is no experiment. The most successful stockmen in the United States have used it for years and it ranks A 1 among the condimental foods—keeping horses, cattle, sheep and swine in fine condition at all seasons of the year. Go to Peterson—he will tell you all about it.

Deputy Marshal Joe Hill has been a busy man the past few days and L. E. Dole, who languishes within the city's prison walls, is minus a pet bear. In some manner Tuesday morning the bear slipped his collar and started on an expedition after huckleberries without the permission of Marshal Hill or a pass from the city recorder. Searching parties were organized but failed to locate the animal. Report come in Tuesday evening that he was seen taking a ride in a farmers wagon, and that his baggage was checked for Pioneer; another report was to the effect that he had met grim death on the Butler ranch near Toledo, and his expedition was brought to an untimely end. Great excitement prevailed for awhile, and Dole refuses to be comforted.

The Board of Directors Meet.

The Board of Directors of the Lincoln County Fair Association met at the court house Aug. 1.
