Our Good Neighbors.

Siletz Siftings.

Al Waugh and Lee Wade passed through Siletz Wednesday.

Major McKoin and C. L. Gates, accompanied by Mesdames Haller and Marion DeLoss, went to Toledo Tuesday to enjoy a ride in Dr. Wetmore's launch.

Harry Chapman has taken a contract for splitting one thousand rails.

Clark Copeland came in Sunday and returned home Monday.

F. C. Hoffman of Elk City made a brief visit here Monday.

Albert Martin is hauling hay to Toledo every day.

W. Towner and his two boys spent Sunday at Newport.

Our blacksmith will soon leave us for the Siuslaw country. Success to him in his new field.

Monday evening a social event occurred at the school building. Dr. Wetmore surprised everyone with his violin accomplishments. Mr. Gates accompanied on the piano and the young and old "tripped the light fantastic" until a late hour when refreshments, arranged by Mrs. Bernard, were served.

The roof of the M. E. parsonage caught fire Sunday at 11 a. m. It was soon extinguished and a few shingles repaired all damages.

During the day season moss should be thoroughly scraped from the shingles.

Agnes Reed, aged three years and eleven months, died at the home of her parents across the river from Siletz Sunday afternoon. Interment was made in the Siletz cemetery Monday. Rev. E. H. Bryant officiating. The bereaved have the sympathy of all.

Tipton Shellhead, Bruce Butler, Sampson Billy, Joshua Brown and wife, Louie Smith and wife, Louie Charles, John Newberry and wife, Arthur Bensei and wife, David Johns and family, Jack Orton, Bensei Orton, Scott Lane and family, Tenas Charlie and family, Jim Watts and family, Roy Bryant and several others spent Sunday at Newport.

Walter Hall visited his chittim camp on Salmon river last week.

Nels Anderson of Kernville is working for the Hall Brothers.

C. E. Hawkins, Hurley Lutz and several others have been angling for the sportive trout this week.

For two weeks U. S. Grant has been making the bark fly.

Charlie Ruhl is making quite a prolonged stay at Newport. Charlie has been faithful in the store of Mrs. C. G. for years and well earned the vacation he is enjoying.

E. H. Bryant and others are hauling the balance of the church lumber to its destination and expect to have the building completed soon.

Mr. Huffercker and Fred Wagner were Toledo callers Monday. The former has made many improvements on his homestead across the river from Ned Evans'. Nine acres of slashed ground will be sown to timothy.

Charlie Johnson brought in 100 sheep from the valley. They are a nice looking flock and Charlie will have a good home for them.

John Micek has some lumber on the ground for an extensive addition to his place of business.

Our bonded merchants will soon organize to prevent anyone from trading with the Indians in any way without a bond.

A. T. Peterson visited Siletz last week.

Eather Copeland accompanied by her father went to visit her sister at Salado.

Salado Items.

James, Willie and Walter Hodges went to Elk City Thursday to take in the show which had been advertised. They were disappointed, but remained for the dance.

Mrs. Mae Mays came up Friday and is visiting with Mrs. E. Gile.

E. A. Gile went to Elk City Saturday returning Sunday.

Jessie Daniel came in from Shelburn, where he has been at work for several months.

Clark Copeland and daughter Esther went up Monday for a short visit with Elmo Davis.

Elk City Events.

Robert Tassel, who lives on a ranch on Elk mountain, had his dwelling house and a portion of his household goods destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon. The building and contents were fully insured in the Scottish Union and National Insurance Company. Mr. Steel of Albany, representing the company, came on Monday and adjusted the loss on building and contents at $631.35. The company is to be commended for the promptness with which it settled this claim.

Some of our hunters have made an effort to stock up with deer meat but have not succeeded.

Our bridge is progressing slowly but surely.

Cook & Burness have purchased the Barker stock of goods and rented the Carter building.

Miss Frances Simpson celebrated her birthday by entertaining a large number of her young friends.
