Our Good Neighbors.

Salado Items.

The parties that were over at Bull run for an outing have returned to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodges went to Elk City Saturday, returning Sunday.

Bartha Hathaway of Harlan visited here Sunday.

Messrs. Parks and Hoefflein passed through here this week.

E. A. Gile went to Toledo on business last Monday.

Ike Hadden passed through here to his claim Monday.

James Hodges went to Elk City Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Elmo Davis who is going to visit with her mother mother, Mrs. Copeland.

Gur school closes next Tuesday, September 1. The closing exercises will be held in the forenoon, commencing about 10:30, as Miss Tucker wishes to reach Toledo the same evening. The parents and friends are invited to attend.

It began raining about noon of the 24th and soaked the ground thoroughly. This insures good pasture for stock, but is hard on the late grain which is out in the fields yet.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hodges went to Toledo Saturday on business, returning Sunday.

Messrs. Cook and Berness gave a picnic Sunday. They invited a select few of the bontons of Elk City.

Joe Parks is staying at Salado, working for Mr. Aodges. He has been helping Mr. Her build a cabin on the latter's claim the past week.

Mrs. Sadie Davis and children went to Newport Tuesday to visit a few days with her mother and folks, who are camping at Nye creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Gile are nearly ready to start on their journey back to Idaho. They will be missed in this community.

George Hodges has corn of the white dent variety that averages 6 feet in height. His wheat and oats should be seen at the fair this fall. They are fine.

Mr. Her, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Wright, who have been in the mountains, returned here Sunday on their way home. They were all well pleased, and the report is they learned to cook over a campfire. All have taken timber claims.

Can any of the beekeepers tell why the honey made in the last of this season is nearly candied? Several years ago it was the same, but had a slightly sour taste. Some thought it was due to the dry season, but that cannot be the cause now, for this season has been unusually wet.

Elk City Events.

Every year is adding to the prestige of Elk City as a summer and winter resort. The Hotel Elk is overflowing with gay resorters. The following are adding daily to their avoirdupois and mental vigor at that popular hostelry: Frank Irving and family, N. B. Avery and wife, Corvallis; C. D. Jessup, Salem; Arthur Nelson, Con Abbott, R. H. Eller, Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hoffman and Albert Jones of Portland; Albert Jones and wife of Ashland.

Two parties from Portland, one from Iowa and one from Colorado, passed through here on their way to their timber claims.

Agriculture is evidently making a long stride forward in this vicinity. Cook & Berness have shipped in a binder and a threshing machine.

Mrs. Hall and husband have been visiting Mrs. Hall's sister, Mrs. M. W. Simpson.

Mrs. Mae Mays has been visiting friends in this place and up Big Elk.

Popular Sunday Excursions.

In order to meet the wants of the traveling public, and give practically daily service to the beach during the summer season, the Corvallis & Eastern railroad will run an excursion train from Albany, Corvallis and all points west to Newport every Sunday commencing July 12th leaving Albany at 7:00 a. m. Returning leaves Newport at 5:30 p. m. Three day and season tickets will be good going and returning on these trains. This should prove popular with the traveling public and a liberal patronage will be the best appreciation.
