 Larkey Logan Shot.

Larkey Logan, a well-known Indian (Siletz was shot by M. L. Glass in the latter's saloon on the water front about o'clock last Sunday evening. The bullet, a 32 caliber, entered Logan's right breast and inflcted a rather serous wound, from which. however, it is believed he will recover. Mr. Glass ives THE LEADER the following account f the affair.

Logan, while in William Enos' restaurant, told Miss Jennie Enos that he intended to make a grand opening in Tony Jacobson with a knife. Mr. Jacobson, by the way is a partner of Mr. Glass. Later Jacobson entered the restuarant and was chased out by Logan with a knife. Jacobson went to the saicon, passing through to the rear room. Logan soon appeared with a knife in his hand and started for the rear room, evidently in search of Jacobson. Glass, who was behind the bar, ordered Logan out of the place. Logan backed toward the door, applied a choice epithet to Mr. Glass, and just as he reached the door, which he had left open, threw his right hand toward his hip pocket. Glass seized his gun and fired. Logan staggered slightly but did not fall. He left the place, but returned again in a few minutes, when he was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Jacobson. Monday he was brought before Justice Ellsworth and placed under a $300 peace bond, which he furnished.

Logan was intoxicated, and the initial cause of the trouble is said to have been Logan's interference in a game of billiards between Tony and Hans Jacobson, to which the players very naturally objected.

M. L. Trapp of Chitwood was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Trapp sold 100 head of mutton sheep a few days ago at $2.25 per head-a price considerably lower than that which has prevailed the past two years. While the price of mutton seems to be on the decline, wool is steadily advancing, our sheep men receiving from 161/2 to 17 cents per pound for this year's clip.

A well-known young gentleman of Lincoln county, a graduate of one of Oregon's colleges, relates an amusing incident of his college career. One day a well-known professor gave our informant's class the duty of writing an article upon some subject taken up during the term, to consist of not less than 1000 words. Our informant chose for linduent tax list. Rejected. his subject: "Milton and His Works." He then proceeded to tell what he knew Bunyan. He discovered his mistake after his paper had been turned in, but was considerably relieved when it was time.

The Loganberry.

I want to tell the readers of THE LEADEB how they bear. We kept account of one plant and from it we picked two crates and thirteen boxes. All of them were fine large berries, the last being as large as the first. I have the true loganberry plants for sale at ten cents each or one dollar per dozen, delivered next March.
