Norton Notes.

J. W. Hewitt, our genial section foreman, paid Corvallis and Albany a visit the fore part of the week.

Fred Wagner had the misfortune to lose his prunes, some one being so bold as to take them in the night, without permission.

We are much pleased to hear of Henry Hamar improving.

We will soon hear wedding bells in this burg. Wish them much joy. Next.

Ralph Hamar and Walter Girard are recutting their cascara bark, preparing to dry it over.

A. L. Porter is in the Alsea country surveying.

Mrs. Wm. Miller has gone to King's Valley to visit friends and relatives. Billie finds it rather lonely while she is gone.

The wind storm of Monday blew down great quantity of apples and prunes.

Alsea Items,

During Sunday and Monday we had the first heavy rainfall of the season, accompanied by heavy winds.

In crossing the bay Monday J. Luderan's launch got its hat blown off.

There has been a light run of salmon this fall, but we are in hopes the recent storms will bring them in.

Vacant houses are in demand in Waldport by ranchers wishing to move in to send their children to the winter term of school.

The gasoline boat Gerald C. unloaded some freight at the Diven dock Saturday and returned to Yaquina Sunday.

You all know what the boys say when they catch no fish. But no josh, I. Kent got two of the little striped fellows.

For cause and effect of sea sickness inquire of Prof. Tine Goin, who can explain how sick the poor dog was.
