STEWART & VANT

Toledo - - - Oregon

Additional Local Notes.

Ed Wade went valleyward this morning on a pleasure exertion.

Attorney B. F. Jones left Wednesday morning on a business trip to The Dalles.

Merchant Johnny Loomis of Newport passed through this morning en route to Roseburg on a vacation.

Jesse Reeder, the Yaquina merchant, reports that he has furnished digging spuds on the ranch east of Toledo. He secured about 400 bushel.

Mrs. T. J. Ewing and family will leave Monday to join the head of the head of the family at Hoquiam, Wash. They have sold their place east of town to County Judge Brown. Their departure will be regretted by many friends.

A pair of the Schermer boys of Pool slough were in Toledo Tuesday and placed on the market some of their father's choice October strawberries. They were large and luscious and fully sustained the reputation of the glorious climate of Lincoln county.

Dr. Lowe's glasses make the way easy for those who have weak or defective sight. They knock down the ills that the eye strain set up. If you would have strong, healthy eyes, this is deserving your highest consideration. There is a reason. In Toledo October 20 and 21.

Bob Montague returned to the valley yesterday morning from a fishing expedition in the lower bay, in company with Manager Edwin Stone of the C. & E. Bob reports that he caught eight salmon on a troll Wednesday—"and that's pretty good for Newport and vicinity."

Clyde and Louis Fox of Siletz were Toledo visitors Sunday. Clyde will be known in the future as "Scout" Fox. His brother Elks are hereby notified that he has justly earned this additional handle to his name, and should be prepared to do him proper reverence at their next meeting.

The Grants Pass Courier speaks in complimentary terms of the firm of Horning & Dupuy, which is doing a big wholesale and retail business in confectionery, ice cream, dairy products, etc. Herman Horning, a Toledo boy, is the front end of the firm, and his many friends here will be pleased to learn that he is prospering.

F. W. Canfield writes that himself and family are well and comfortably situated in their new home at Ponoka, Alberta, Canada. They are well pleased with the country, although Mr. Canfield seems to be getting hungry for clams. He sends regards and best wishes to all friends in Toledo and vicinity.

Come let me figure on your bill of paints. Raw oil, 60 cents per gallon; boiled oil, 65 cents; red barn paint, 90 cents; house paint, the best made, $1.00 in 5 gallon cans; white lead, $7.75 per hundredweight; yellow ochre, 3 cents per pound; wall paper, 10 cents per double roll. Everything else in proportion. Full stock at Krogstad's.

Will close out all shirtwaists at cost

Elk City Events.

(Omitted last week)

Troy Mays who has been in eastern Oregon for several months, returned to this place Monday.

Frank Whostler, a former resident of Elk City, is now visiting old acquaintances. His parents are in Idaho.

Elk City school opened Monday, with Miss Jennie Lilly of Corvallis in charge.

E. M. Mays, proprietor of Hotel Elk, has been fitting up his popular hostelry with bath rooms with hot and cold water. He has now a complete system of waterworks with reservoir at the spring on the hillside.

H. Terwilliger returned to Portland on Wednesday. He has enjoyed several months of Lincoln county air and scenery and is well prepared to stand the malaria Portland for a season.

Material for the fish hatchery building in arriving slowly. The work has been delayed for lack of lumber, which means a diminished supply of eggs.

CONTEST NOTICE.

U. S. Land Office, Oregon City, Or.,
September 28, 1903.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Charles Johnson contestant, against Homestead entry No. 12073, made April 16, 1897, for the sw 1/4 of ne 1/4, s 1/2 of nw 1/4 and ne 1/4 of sw 1/4, sec. 23, township 12 S., r 10 W., by G. Polittowski, contestee, in which it is alleged that contestant is well acquainted with said tract of land and "knows the present condition of the same; also that said G. Polittowski has wholly abandoned said tract of land for the last past four years and next prior to the date hereof; that said entryman has not improved, cultivated, or lived on said tract of land for four years next prior to the date hereof, and that said tract of land at the present time remains in its original wild state, and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged," said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on November 18, 1903, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Oregon City, Ore. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed Sept. 21, 1903, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

GEO. W. BIRRE, Receiver.
