Some of the colleges of the country have decided to close their doors against cigarette smokers. Let the good work go on.

After an enjoyable trip abroad William Jennings Bryan has returned thoroughly convinced that this is the best country on earth—with room, however, for improvement in the financial system—of which all have heard many a time, many a time.

Notice for Bids.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the County Court of Lincoln county up to the hour of 10 o'clock, a. m., February 3, 1904, for the building of Scot creek bridge, according to the plans and specifications now on file in the office of the county clerk. Bidders can, if they so desire, submit their own plans and specifications, also. Bidders must deposit 5 per cent of the amount of their bids, as by law required. The Court reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the County Court,
IRA WADE, County Clerk.

Notice for Bids.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the County Court up to the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., February 3, 1904, for the building of a bridge across Five Rivers above the Frank Seits farm, in section 35, township 14 south, range 10 west, said bridge to have a 60-foot span, with a 20-foot approach on each side. Bidders will be required to furnish their own plans and specifications with their bids. Bidders must deposit 5 per cent of the amount of their bids, as by law required. The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the County Court of Lincoln county,
IRA WADE, County Clerk.

Siletz Notes.

The 3-year-old child of John Micek is quite sick.

One of Ned Evans' children is very sick.

Charlie Montgomery and family's hearts are full of gratitude to the employees and all who aided them so much during their daughter's last illness.

Miss Jean Hollis, at the home of her father, Klamath Charlie, attempted suicide by hanging herself one day last week, cause unknown. For some time doubts were entertained of her recovery, but she is well, and now at the home of John Adams.

Married—at the Agency—Tuesday, January 12, Louie Charles and Delia Lane. Congratulations are in order. Louie has been building and has a good nest to put his birdie in.

Miss Pearl Hall is on the sick list.

Roy Bryant is improving slowly but surely under the professional care of Dr. Wetmore.

A Mr. Elliot has been with us several days prospecting for land. We understand he is trying to lease large tracts of land for cattle and sheep. He is a thoroughgoing Methodist, comes to us highly recommended, and we earnestly hope he will obtain a foothold here.

A game called "Flinch" is all the rage at the school.

Lena Tronson is very sick at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Adams.

Mrs. Millard Collins, who was dangerously ill, is recovering rapidly.

Miss Edna Cook, one of the most estimable of girls, is dangerously ill at the school; also Miss Cora Montgomery is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant feel deeply their debt of gratitude to all who have so cheerfully aided them during their son's sickness.

Lena Wilbur is helping at the home of Charles Montgomery.

John Gaither of Newport was shaking hands all around Saturday.

Hall Brothers are placing a pocket and bridge boom in the river near the mill.

Died—At his home two miles north of the Agency, Tuesday morning, of pneumonia, George Bensell, aged about 35. George was one of the hardest working of our boys. It is very sad and his wife, aged father and relatives have the profound sympathy of all.

Died—At her home in Siletz, Monday

LOCAL NOTES.

Mrs. A. T. Peterson left this morning for a visit at Albany.

William Borden of Newport was among us last Saturday.

An interesting communication from Waldport will appear next week.

Herman Olson returned Wednesday from a protracted stay in Montana and Idaho.

County Surveyor Wygant left yesterday morning on a business trip to Oregon City.

Merchant John Ofstedahl was very ill the fore part of the week, but is convalescent.

Read and heed George McCaulou's new ad on another page. It's a good square talk.

Sam Stewart and Bill Reidy of Horse creek were passengers for Oregon City this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leese returned yesterday morning to Corvallis, to remain about two weeks.

The local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs held a joint installation last night. Tell you about it next week.

P. A. Miller of Morrison and Dudley Trapp of Chitwood were in the city last night attending the Odd Fellows' installation.

Mrs. F. M. Wadsworth went to Portland Wednesday to visit her sons. Her little grandson Merle, son of Frank is very sick.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Samuel Center. All members are urged to be present.

Z. T. McGuire and Bob Warnock of Eddyville were in the city last night. They went to Elk City this morning to attend the shooting match, accompanied by Jim Derrick and others.

Mrs. George Chambers was very ill for several days, but Dr. Wetmore believes she is now out of danger. Mesdames C. G. Copeland, M. E. Thayer and C. H. Young have been faithful and skillful nurses.

E. F. Roark and family moved this morning onto the Morgan place up the Yaquina, which they have leased. Meanwhile Mr. Roark will be given a chance to investigate before purchasing. The hope is unanimous they will remain with us.

Eggs away up in price, and here your hens are moping about, sickly and non-productive, all for the want of some of Pratt's world renowned poultry powder, which will start hens laying in a week's time. For sale by Krogstad.
