While going to the depot Tuesday morning Banker Thomas Leese slipped and fell on the icy sidewalk—and great was the fall thereof.

St. John's Church—Fifth Sunday in Lent. Morning prayer and litany 11 a. m.; evening prayer, 7:30 p. m. All welcome. F. O. Jones, Pastor.

THE LEADER reported last week that the local W. R. C. would give a Fair on the 28th inst. We have been indignantly requested to announce that we were mistaken.

Our former fellow-citizen, Gust Forsell, now a resident of Wetaskiwin, Alberta, Canada, writes THE LEADER that "Oregon is the best, and I expect to be back there in two or three years." We'll give the prodigal a hearty welcome, Gust.

George Blattner was up, from Newport Tuesday. He took advantage of the dark of the moon Monday and planted his early potatoes, which insures a big crop and wards off the attacks of moles, etc. If you don't believe it, try it.

E. G. Grosbeck of Denver has been in the city this week visiting with his cousins, Mrs. Ed Stanton and Miss Hattie Gillette. With the latter he went to Newport Wednesday to visit the big Pacific. He left this morning for Creswell, the home of his mother.

George McCluskey came in Tuesday evening from Hammond, where he has been teaching school and passed on to the terminus to visit his sister, Mrs. Charles Litchfield. He will proceed to his homestead in Lane county, the improvement of which he considers more profitable than teaching school.

THE LEADER gives space this week to the call for the Socialist county convention. The chairman and secretary, it will be observed, have taken advantage of our good nature and courteous inclination and rung in a little invitation to the great army of sinners in the Democratic and Republican parties to "jine" 'em. We trust the call will be effective—that is, we hope every Republican who believes he is a wracked and screwed slave will get out of the party before tomorrow morning.

The voters of Lincoln county are getting their ears filled with whispers these days. Many of them have been told on the quiet that new county officials should be elected in order that the county records may be examined by experts, the insinuation being that the present officials are dishonest. This choice bit of poison is being circulated by men who pose as Republicans, but whom the voters recognize as the same old bolters and knifers who have for years fought every candidate on the ticket whom they were not permitted to name. Honest voters who believe in fair play will simply consider the source and treat the poison peddlers with silent contempt.
