

To the Public:

We wish to inform the people of Lincoln county that we are located in Toledo with a general stock of hardware and such articles as the farmer, sawmill man, fisherman, carpenter, logger, or, in fact, anybody—or his wife—may need in our line. We show also a full line of plows, cultivators and harrows. We will be glad to have you call and see us before purchasing. Remember, we are the only exclusive hardware firm in the county.

Siletz Items.

Married—Tuesday evening, March 23, at the home of Mrs. C. G. Copeland, Coquille Thompson and Mrs. Agnes Smith, Rev. Bryant officiating. The contracting parties are well known and many are the congratulations showered upon them. Mrs. Smith has been serving as school cook, and the mess presented her with a handsome set of silver teaspoons. They will be at home to their friends at Mr. Thompson's ranch four miles north of the Agency.

Died—At her home at the upper farm, March 26, Mrs. Baptese, aged 80 years. The last sad rites were administered and she was laid to rest March 28 in the cemetery on the Kitty Evans place. The services were held at the home of Ned Evans, a large number being present. Rev. Bryant officiated.

Charlie Montgomery made the round trip to the county seat Wednesday. He says he would like to sell his lots in Toledo at what they are assessed at.

John Micek has a variety of meats on hand, including bologna, wiener-wurst, pork, sausage, bacon, etc.

Roy Butterfield disposed of some furs to Hall Brothers this week. A large otter skin was a beauty.

Among those very sick at the upper farm are H. C. Calahan and Charlie Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown are house-keeping in the former clerk's residence. An expert shingle man will be here soon to assist Hall Brothers.

"Do not pool; do not contract your chittim," is often heard here.

Easter services at the M. E. church Sunday.

Walter Ben is again on the sick list. Plowing going on rapidly.

Waldport News.

(Received too late last week.)

Professor Barber of Newport made us a short visit Saturday, returning to his home Sunday.

Miss Margaret Stouder is reported quite sick, but the rest of our patients are better, and we hope they will continue so.

The leap year dance was reported as quite a pleasant affair by all present.

Charles Graff returned Tuesday from Toledo, where he has been for the past two weeks under the doctor's care for a wounded hand.

Nicholas Ludeman of Yachats was here last week to attend the leap year dance. He returned Monday, accompanied by his brother John.

The steamer Harrison is here yet anxiously awaiting the bar to calm down.

We were visited Saturday by quite a storm, blowing shingles, boards and tree limbs high in the air. Something unusual for Oregon.

Mrs. E. E. White and children left last week for their home in Corvallis.

The school will close here next week, and all are sorry we could not have had more, as some of the pupils would have finished their eighth grade studies.

Fall Creek Items.

Hilery Gherkin has come over to his ranch to peel chittim.

Claire Trenholm went out to Corvallis last week to see a dentist. He came back very much relieved.

Grace Oglesby has gone out to Corvallis to take music lessons. The Fall Creek string band will be one shy till she comes back.

The Palisade hotel which burned down some time ago is to be rebuilt by F. B. Carns, the proprietor.

Carlo Minotti has his prune orchard pruned. We hope prunes will be a better price this fall. He has sixteen acres in prunes.

There will be a masquerade ball in Alsea April 1. Music will be furnished by Al Howard and T. J. Carns.

Willis Vidito made a flying trip to Fall creek Wednesday.

Our new supervisor, A. J. Oglesby, is not a divine healer, but says there will be better roads in Tidewater precinct before his time expires.

A. M. Beals has been at work on his new wagon road.
