Just Size 'Em Up.

The campaign is drawing to a close. In fact, this is the wind-up so far as the newspapers of Lincoln county are concerned.

The LEADER requests all loyal Republicans and honest voters generally to kindly study over the situation once more before depositing their ballots next Monday.

With the opponents of the Republican ticket it has been a campaign of mere insinuation, vilification and lies. As an example we point to the Toledo correspondent of Vim, who in his vile, covert and sneaking mess of rot has several times made use of the word "coward." Isn't he a pretty sample? There isn't a worse coward in the county than he—too cowardly to make his name known, too cowardly to use more than the initials of the men whom he attempts to injure. That sort of stuff constitutes the "argument" that has been used against the Republican nominees. Powerful, isn't it?

The LEADER offers something more substantial. We ask the voters to cast their ballots for tried and true officials—not experiments. Republicans can and should elect the ticket from top to bottom. We believe they will do it.

Mad Matthews.

In his official capacity every interest of the county, financially, socially and morally have been hung to the winds in the effort to gain votes to keep him (Sheriff Ross) in office.—Newport News.

Every voter who has resided in Lincoln county during the official career of Sheriff Ross knows that the above is as false as its author—and that is about the limit. Every citizen of the county who knows Sheriff Ross well knows he is one of the most faithful and competent officials in the state, and even his political opponents do not hesitate to admit it.

When a man like Matthews of the Newport News criticizes Sheriff Ross, or any other man, he exhibits a combination of gall and ignorance which adds to his prestige as the leading piece of laughing-stock of Lincoln county. Years of experience have failed to teach him that the people of Lincoln county do not regard him as a fit or competent dictator or guide.

Perhaps no man in the Second Judicial District is better qualified to fill the position of Circuit Judge than Hon. E. O. Potter, the Republican nominee for that important position. Judge Potter is a man of years and discretion, a graduate of the State University, a lawyer of marked ability and large experience, honest, studious, sober and industrious. He should receive as large a majority in every county in the district as any man on the Republican ticket.

Assessor Howell deserves a big majority. He is a conscientious, faithful official, and is fast becoming familiar with the county and the duties of his office. He will be able to give better service during his second term, and no man could have done better during his first.

That Man Hoskins.

Albert Hoskins of San Francisco, who owns property in this county, made a terrible assault last week via the Newport News route on Sheriff Ross, and threatens to have that official hauled up before the next grand jury for charging him with penalty and interest on taxes which he failed to pay before the first Monday in April, as provided by law. The ignorance of Mr. Hoskins will excuse his bad outbreak. He is no worse than a few others who do not live outside the county. This is another case in which the records, which may be consulted by any intelligent man, will exonerate Sheriff Ross from the charge of dishonesty. The enemy is certainly short on ammunition.

A citizen who signs himself "Republican" asked Superintendent Betheres several questions last week through the organs of Mr. Barber, the Democratic endorsee. Why didn't the writer put his questions in the form of direct charges, and then sign his own name, like a man? That would have had ever so much more weight with the voters than the cowardly attempt to poison their minds with insinuations just at the close of the campaign. The voters well understand that the man who fails to attach his own name to an abusive campaign article does so because he has no influence or standing in the community.

Vim and the News are expected to purge themselves thoroughly this week. Watch the final grand dump.
