OUR SILETZ FRIENDS

Roy Huffaker was down from the upper farm Saturday.

Albert Martin is rushed with work in the blacksmith shop.

$130 buys a team, harness and wagon. Inquire at this office.

Hans Peterson, the Toledo jeweler, was in Siletz last Saturday.

Jim Derrick and B. F. Swope passed through town last Saturday.

George Newberry is expected back in a few days from Washington.

Supplies of clams, flounders, etc., are sent up from the lower Siletz.

Tom Jackson and Major Ludson came in from Toledo Monday evening.

Mrs. Ellen Davis has ordered a bicycle. She is an experienced rider.

Some commercial men were doing business with our merchants Tuesday.

Charlie Ruhl spent a few days at Philomath but is back at the old stand.

Ed Montgomery was visiting a few days with friends and relatives last week.

John Micek wife and family took advantage of the excursion rates to visit Albany Sunday.

Tennis and croquet are being indulged in by all at the beautiful school grounds on the hill.

John Spencer and wife arrived from Otter Rock Thursday. Will remain until after election.

Oscar Brown is building an addition to the residence of Mrs. C. G. Copeland to be used as a bedroom.

Ed Altree accompanied Willie Alexander to the upper farm last Saturday in search of caecora bark.

John Adams and wife visited Toledo last Saturday. Raymond Clay of Chemawa returned with them.

A social gathering occurred at the home of the Hall brothers last Thursday evening. Music was good.

Willie Alexander accompanied Roy Bryant to Toledo Tuesday. Roy hauled some goods over for John Micek.

The has-beens or married men's ball club were practicing with the boys Monday. Preparing for their match game Saturday.

Frank McCormick, Warren Hall, Vane Hennesse and Ed Swanson were Euchre mountain visitors two or three days last week.

Mr. Scott, who leased the Barney Williams place has gone to the valley. His wife is keeping house for Mr. Jenkins at the lower farm.

Frank Micek expects to return to Columbus, Neb., soon. He is a ball tosser of no mean ability and his gyrations in the box are terrifying to the batter.

The Epworthians have decided not to run any opposition to our hotel keepers on election day and there will be no refreshments sold by them. An entertainment will be given soon after election. Program next week.

George Lewis and family were visiting Mr. Lewis' sister, Mrs. Albert Martin. The latter returned to Mill 4 with them to visit her sick father.

Joseph Kosydar has received the contract to furnish meat for the school here during the coming year. He will open a market at the old stand near Mrs. Copeland's.

A good program will be given Sunday evening at the League service. Otis DeLaurier speaks on Japan Sunday. Come and hear him. You cannot afford to miss these meetings.

Miss Robbins is attending the teachers' institute at the county seat. She will remain with Mrs. Copeland after her term of school here and instruct Esther Copeland for her examination in the eighth grade.

Mrs. O. B. DeLaurier and Miss Esther Copeland accompanied the excursionists to Eugene Sunday. Miss Esther returned Monday. Mrs. DeLaurier remained over to attend the teachers' institute and visit the beach.

Bob Tronson, Stewart Rooney, Charlie Sutton, Harry Chapman, Henry Johnson, Louie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Tenas Charlie were among the Toledo callers Saturday. Some of the above also visited the beach.

John Micek has a fine team, buggy, new harness and whip. John has ordered lumber and will build a small meat shop adjoining the store. Ripe strawberries and cherries, a consignment much appreciated by our people, was received Friday.

U. S. Inspector M. F. Holland and Superintendent McKoin went to Newport Sunday. The former will leave for other fields from there. He is a thorough business man—no taffy wanted. He found everything in the very best of condition here and his remarks to the good people of Siletz last Saturday evening were duly appreciated.

Mrs. C. G. Copeland will attend the Pioneers' meeting in company with her mother, Mrs. Kisor of Philomath, about the middle of June in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Kisor crossed the plains in 1852 and is one of the most interesting pioneers to talk to. Mrs. Kisor will return from the meeting and make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Copeland, during the summer season.

Decoration Day passed off very pleasantly. Charlie Montgomery and the Government had their flags up early. The draping of the flag at the Government office was beautiful. Professor Gates had the children assemble at the schoolhouse at 2 p. m. and march to the cemetery, where appropriate exercises were held. Brief remarks by Rev. Bryant, singing and the bestrewn of flowers closed the exercises. One lone soldier's grave in the Siletz cemetery is in a very poor condition.

We have been looking to find a man in this burg who says he is an Independent Republican but have not found one who will say he belongs to that family. Mr. Dethers will get all the Republican votes in Waldport precinct and a few Democrats. At least that is what they all say now. They say he is the right man in the right place.

Kernville Items.

We have a new settler, Wm. Scott. He came in on the gasoline schooner, Della of Nestucca with his wife and baby. The owner of the Della brought in a lot of provisions which he sold to settlers along the Siletz river. The boat went up to Mr. Stemple's place, about 17 miles from the mouth.
