

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume X11.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, June 10, 1904.

Number 15

MAJORITY 20,000

Progressive Oregon Endorses President Roosevelt.

BOTH CONGRESSMEN RETURNED

Hermann by 7,000, Williamson by 13,000—Next Legislature Will Be Largely Republican.

According to the prediction of the well informed and good guessers generally, Oregon swung into the Republican column Monday by an increased majority—evidently about 21,000, against 17,146 two years ago.

Congressmen Hermann and Williamson are returned with a combined majority of about 20,000.

The Republicans nominees for state offices all have majorities away up in the figures.

Circuit Judge Hamilton (dem.) is re-elected by a large majority over Potter (rep.) The latter lost Lincoln county by 66.

George M. Brown, had no opposition and is still prosecuting attorney for the Second judicial district.

G. S. Wright is elected joint senator for Lincoln, Yamhill and Tillamook counties by a majority of about 500, 315 of which was handed him by Lincoln county.

James S. Cooper is elected joint representative for Polk and Lincoln counties by nearly 500 majority, his lead in Lincoln county being 233.

The direct primary law has carried by about 20,000 and local option and the state printer amendment are also well ahead.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

The contest on some of the county offices was very close. County Clerk Ira Wade and Treasurer Hyde had practically a walkover, and County Superintendent George Bethers had an easy race with H. D. Barber.

Sheriff Ross had a close call, beating R. N. Warnock by the narrow margin of only 9 votes. Mr. Ross made no canvass, but his opponent worked every part of the county thoroughly and persistently, and came very near winning. He was aided materially by numerous false statements of the enemies of Mr. Ross and the fourth-term argument. Considering that he made but little effort to win, the victory of Mr. Ross is remarkable, and gives further evidence of his popularity. The opposition was well-organized and very bitter.

Assessor R. H. Howell was beaten by J. H. Lutz, the well-known and tolerably smooth Democrat, by a margin of 34. Henry has made a good assessor, but was the victim of a job.

Frank Thompson, Republican nominee for commissioner, was "traded off" fiercely, his majority over Dudley Trapp being only 206.

M. Wygant is still county surveyor, his lead over Jim Derrick being 70.

W. W. Soule beat John Williams 200 in the race for coroner.

Lincoln county gave the following majorities for the amendments: Local option, 142; primary law, 343; state printer, 291.

The Socialist vote reached 105 for Mikkelsen for supreme judge. The Socialists did but little scratching, except in Beaver Creek, where quite a number of them lined up for the Democratic county ticket, verifying the report that had come from there several days before election.

G. R. Schenck, Democrat, was elected justice of the peace for Toledo precinct by a majority of 29 over Ralph Van Cleve, Republican. Ike Hiser, Socialist, was also in the race, but the voters decided that he couldn't afford to leave his farm for that office, and they couldn't afford to go away up Mill creek after him when he might be wanted in a hurry.

New Time Card.

Beginning tomorrow, June 11, the train will arrive at Toledo at 7:43 a. m., returning in the evening at 5:11.

P. S. Hendry was a visitor from Newport yesterday. We are informed that he didn't get to vote.

Commissioners' court is in session. Report next week.

Walter Hall was in Toledo Wednesday. They are manufacturing some very fine cedar shingles at their mill at Siletz and have placed a consignment on sale in Toledo.

E. D. Skaggs, the old reliable, brought in the ballots from Five Rivers. Mr. Skaggs is the editors' friend and always able and willing to furnish them with a complete list of the vote of his precinct.

W. C. Hawley's political talk in the Woodmen Hall in Toledo last Friday night was enjoyed by a large audience. Mr. Hawley is a power in Republican harness, and his visit was appreciated.

G. L. Gray's sawmill has been busy this week. Jay Dunn and Stony Wells placed the first bunch of logs in the boom the fore part of the week. The mill will run steadily until the 500,000 feet contracted for from Mrs. Espy's place is converted into lumber.

Sheriff Ross took DuBois and son, the Newport cottage plunderers, out to Corvallis today and lodged them in jail. Toledo's cage not being considered safe, when outside assistance was suspected. They boy had been out on bail, but it became necessary to put him behind the bars again, as he was evidently trying to turn the old man loose.

I. J. Bill Pepin returned a few days ago from Sank, Wash., where he is engaged in the chittim business. He says the reports of immense chittim groves in Washington are considerably overdrawn, there not being to exceed one-fourth of the amount estimated before peeling commenced. He has reason to believe he will receive not less than 10 cents per pound for a carload for July delivery. In about thirty days, or after he has harvested his hay crop, he will return to Washington with his family, to remain until the close of the chittim season.
