Read and approved.
C. M. BROWN, County Judge,
F. M. STANTON, Commissioner,
GEORGE KING, Commissioner.
Attest: IRA WADE, CLERK.

A Day on the Beach.

The following citizens of Toledo went to Newport last Sunday on the gasoline launch Toledo, owned by I. B. McJunkin.

J. H. Ross, G. L. McCaulou, Renuis Arnold, Henry Lewis, Austin Rosebrook, G. H. Umbaugh, J. E. Franklin and son Willie, H. E. Peterson, Haas and John Olson.

The Toledo is a new boat, 25 feet long and 6 feet beam. Her behavior was perfect, and the passengers thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful day and appreciate the kindness of Mr. McJunkin, who invited them to accompany him on the boat's first trip down the bay.

School Meeting.

The annual school meeting will be held in the schoolhouse in Toledo, Monday, June 20, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of electing a director for 3 years and a clerk for 1 year.

W. R. C. at Hood River.

The following officers and members of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Oregon, left Monday morning for Hood River to attend the annual convention of that order:

Department President Roes M. Sobenck, Department Treasurer Mamie Wakefield, Department Color Bearer Maybel Bathers, Department Musician Ella Stewart; Ada Soule, president, Matilda Espy, senior vice president, and Elma Hyde, chaplain of Abe Lincoln W. R. C. No. 49, and Alice Waugh, a loyal member. They were joined at Portland by Mary Wygant, junior vice president of the local Corps, who has been visiting her mother at Pullman, Wash., for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Bathers will also act as Department Secretary for Mrs. Ina Stardevant, whose illness prevented her attending the session. Superintendent George Bathers and daughter Eudelle accompanied the party.

During the past year Toledo has been state headquarters of this noble order, an honor of which no other town in its class can boast. It is expected that Portland will win this year.

The Toledo delegation is expected home tomorrow night.

Now Will You Be Good?

Following is a list of the justices of the peace and constables of the several precincts of Lincoln county elected June 6, 1904:

Alsea—William R Wakefield (rep.), justice of the peace; Al Reynolds (soc.), constable.

Beaver Creek—J M Bowers (dem.), justice of the peace; — Simonson, constable.

Big Elk—No precinct officers elected. Elk City—Charles Allen (dem.), justice of the peace; G W Gaby (dem.), constable.

Five Rivers—William E Earnest (rep.), justice of the peace; S A Seltz (rep.), constable.

Kern—C L Chatterton (rep.), justice of the peace; Andrew Wisniewski (rep.), constable.

Toledo—G R Schenck (dem.), justice of the peace; J A Hill (rep.), constable.

Yaquina—N J Leabo (dem.), justice of the peace; F T Howard (rep.), constable.

Call on Mrs. Wygant for ladies' and children's underwear, hose and magic hose supporters. They are the best.

Commissioner Frank Stanton left Tuesday afternoon on an official drive through the south end of the county. He was compelled to wait seven hours in Toledo for a scow to take his team across the bay to the county road. This is an aggravating condition that should not much longer exist. The people across the bay and in the south part of the county generally are entitled to a ferry, a bridge or some other certain means of reaching the county seat. Delay in the matter is simply false economy and an injustice to a large per cent of the taxpayers. The necessary cost will soon be made good by the increase in both population and prosperity of the south end of the county. It is a good place in which to temporarily increase that awful county debt, which frightens so many of our good people during every political campaign.

While in Siletz last week THE LEADER force had the privilege of attending a session of the Epworth League of that place. This is one of the finest organizations of that character we have ever seen in action, and would be a credit to a larger place than Toledo, which, it must be confessed, it outclasses. The League is well officered, and each department is a special feature. The music is especially good. If you happen to be in Siletz on a Sunday evening attend the Epworth League service. You will be splendidly entertained.

Arthur Cox of Beaver Creek now makes regular Tuesday trips to Toledo with cream for the Toledo creamery, sent by his neighbors, Messrs. Sam Hill, S. A. Holmgreen, John Andrew and William Hulse. Mr. Cox says A. W. Weber will also be a patron of the creamery within a few days, having armed himself with a separator.

E. M. Mays and S. J. Whitford were visitors from Elk City Wednesday. Mr. Whitford is a nephew of Editor Clark of Vim, but is a Republican, and therefore a bad man, as his illustrious uncle has declared that it is impossible for a good man to be a Republican. The gentlemen favored THE LEADER with a pleasant call.

In a letter to C. E. Hawkins, A. T. Peterson of this city, who is in the chittim business at Mossy Rock, Wash., says the bark harvest up there will be above below the estimate. He advises our peelers to hold onto their bark until fall, as he believes it will command a good price.

Thomas Ferr of Winant was in the city Monday with a cargo of his famous strawberries, which would turn a native of Hood River green with envy. Mr. Ferr didn't buy one of those $18 biographical books, with which some of our leading citizens are more or less familiar.

Grand Custodian G. L. Gray, County Judge Brown and Assessor R. H. Howell went to Portland Tuesday to attend the annual session of the Masonic Grand Lodge. John Fogarty, Sr., of Newport passed through that morning on the same mission.

T. F. Lewis of Chitwood was in the city Wednesday, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Baxter. The latter is a schoolma'am, and recently completed a successful nine-months' term at Dayville, Wash.

W. L. Haines has leased a half interest in the Toledo Meat Market, E. F. Gaar being the other end of the firm. Mr. Haines has had considerable experience in the slaughtering part of the business.

Al Waugh and family are putting in a couple of months on their homestead on the Siletz. Hurley Lutz, county assessor-elect, is representing him in the Dewey during his absence.

Mrs. Z. S. Derrick of Eddyville has been quite ill for several days past at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Gannon. Dr. Carter is in attendance.

M. Berry of Newport passed through Tuesday morning on his way to Walla Walla, Wash., where he hopes to find a nice widow who is willin'.

Tom Coleman, the popular traveling representative of Wadhams & Kerr of Portland, was visiting our merchants Wednesday.

Banker and Mrs. Thomas Leese returned to Corvallis Tuesday, after a brief sojourn in their favorite home.

Ira Miller from down Newport way was in the city Tuesday.

Notice.

Having purchased the chittim or cascaru bark on the land known as the DuBois tract, south of Alsea bay, all persons are warned not to trespass upon or remove bark off said land.

Assignee Sale.

We are closing out the entire stock of merchandise of the Yaquina Bay Mercantile Company of Toledo, Oregon, and I will receive bids for the whole or any part of the stock and give a liberal discount, or will continue to sell the stock at retail as wanted at a very low price, as the goods must be closed out as soon as possible. Now is the time to buy your year's supply and save money. We call your especial attention to our large line of Gents' clothing and hats. Come early while the stock is full of choice goods.

Manager.

Prettiest Thing Out.

"Glimpses of the Seashore at Newport" is the latest and best in the booklet line designed by A. L. Thomas, the enterprising and skillful lapidist and scenic photographer of Newport. There are 24 beautiful beach views from Newport to Otter Rock, caught as only Al Thomas and his fine camera can catch them, and reproduced by the Albertype Company of Brooklyn, N. Y. Your relatives and friends in the sultry east would appreciate one of these collections of soothing art just about now. Visit Al Thomas at Newport and ask about it.

James Dixon of Elk City was a Toledo visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Bailey of Winant was in the city Wednesday, the guest of Mrs. J. D. Wetmore.

You will have to hurry. The Yaquina Bay Mercantile Company stock will soon be gone.

The Masonic picnic which was to have been held at Boone's Point Friday, June 24, has been postponed to some future date on account of the busy season and the absence of some of the members.

Mike Mackay, Frank Parker and Everett Jones returned Wednesday evening from Oregon City, where Mike was the defendant in a land contest. B. F. Jones appeared as his attorney and Frank Parker and Everett Jones as witnesses.

THE LEADER last week inadvertently omitted the name of Justice George Sylvester of Newport as one of the official canvassers of Lincoln county's vote. We make good the omission as an additional guarantee that the count was square.

Fred Stanton was in town yesterday. He is camped with his family in the vicinity of Canoe Landing and is engaged in guarding about 1000 acres against the ravages of the deadly and promiscuous chittim peeler. His only weapon is a fly rod.

Grant Graves, a highly esteemed citizen of Elk City, has exhibited signs of mental aberration during the past few weeks, and yesterday it was deemed necessary by his neighbors to bring him to Toledo for examination. He arrived about noon in charge of Justice Charles Allen, E. M. Mays, O. G. Dalaba, D. B. Ramsdell and Troy Mays. The unfortunate man has a wife and four children, to whom he has always been kind, even since it was noticed that his mind was failing, but Wednesday evening he declared that it had become necessary to "sacrifice" one of his children. It was then that the family became alarmed and sent for neighbors. Several of the latter kept watch at the home of Mr. Graves all night, and the next morning brought him to Toledo. In the absence of County Judge Brown Dr. Wetmore conducted the examination before Justice Allen, who deemed it advisable to commit Mr. Graves to the asylum, and Sheriff Ross escorted him to Salem today. It is an unusually sad case. Mr. Graves has had the reputation of being a kind husband and father and a good neighbor. Hope is strong that his health will be restored.
