Sad Situation, Surely.

It is rumored that the beautiful city of Eugene has decided not to observe the glorious Fourth of July this year because the liquor dealers refuse to contribute for the occasion, their refusal being the result of the victory for local option in the recent election. Now isn't that a pretty howdydo? How patriotic! Brace up down there! Celebrate in spite of the awful calamity!

If you have no legal tender,

Do not lag;

You can go upon a bender

With a flag.

Not a man in any station

In this blessed, mighty Nation

Can absorb such inspiration

From a jag.

Strikes during the past ten months have cost the state of Colorado $23,000,000. Strikes are becoming very unpopular, as under the present methods of the labor union leaders, property is destroyed, business depressed, and even murders committed in the effort to gain their ends. Unless the leaders come to their senses soon, unionism is doomed. The rank and file of the unions is composed generally of honest, hard-working men. It is the salaried, hot-headed and hot-mouthed leaders who cause all the trouble.

Chairman Frank Baker of the Republican State Central Committee says: "Let us give Roosevelt a majority of 30,000 in Oregon in November." It can be done, but the feelings of our friends the enemy should be respected. Really, it seems that 25,000 should be satisfactory.

Senator Fulton prophesies a majority of 30,000 in Oregon for Roosevelt. No reputation as a political seer can be built thereon. Something like one hundred thousand qualified voters, not even excluding Indians not taxed, predict the same thing.—Oregonian.

Portland sports attempted to pull off a bull fight near that city last Sunday, but were prevented by the police. Every man of the 100 or more present should get a year in the pen on general principles. A fine sport for Americans!

The Democratic newspapers of Oregon are now engaged in saying nice things about the Republican bolter and scratcher. Of course. This class of Republicans is the life-blood of the Democratic party.

Joint Senator elect G. S. Wright lost his home county, Yamhill, by 154 votes. Lincoln county gave him a majority of 315. We shall expect the gentleman to look up Lincoln county as his home—and treat it accordingly.

Oregon strawberries are a large crop this season and of large size and fine quality, but there is a rather short crop of cherries of only fair quality and averaging no larger than a hen egg.

The National Republican convention has been in session this week in Chicago. Next week we shall place at the head of this column the names of Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise insinuates that the Oregonian is yellower than the San Francisco Examiner. That's enough for a libel suit.
