OUR SILETZ FRIENDS

Ira Brown and Mr. Kentta are tearing or taking down the old flour mill erected years ago by the Government. It has become a familiar land mark to the passer by. Mr. Brown will use much of it for his residence, which is in course of construction on his place one mile northeast of town. Mr. Kentta will build a large barn on the Grant allotment, purchased by him and located across the river from the mill.

John Williams' remarks should have been noticed by ye correspondent in the report last week of the closing exercises at the school, they were loudly applauded and richly deserved the praise bestowed. The rejuvenating mill was a success. E. H. Bryant made a few remarks and everyone enjoyed the occasion.

Miss Pearl Hall and Mrs. Ellen Davis accompanied by George Umbaugh and E. T. Hamar visited at the home of L. D. Wood at the lower farm Saturday, returning Sunday. While at dinner the house took fire from a defective fine and it required prompt action to save the property.

Joseph Kosydar has received his butcher supplies, has repaired and arranged the old Logan store building for his business. He is buying cattle and preparing to fill his contract for furnishing the Indian training school with meat during the coming year.

Mrs. C. G. Copeland and her mother, Mrs. Kisor of Philomath, have returned from Portland, where they have been in attendance at the meeting of the Oregon Pioneer Association. They report the usual good time.

John Adams has enclosed 13 head of steers. Some are branded with a letter P, some B and some R. They are being held for damages to John's pasture and oats field. Hope this will attract the owner's attention.

Mrs. Ellen Davis and Miss Mabel Kreiger, temporary employees of the Indian training school, will take a much-needed rest from their duties during the months of July and August.

Mrs. Jeannie Arnold of Toledo was visiting with her parents the fore part of the week. The health of her father, Mr. Alexander, is very poor. Dr. Parker was in attendance Tuesday.

Willie Towner is authorized to use the government teams to give the children an outing on the glorious Fourth in Newport. The boys practice every day for athletic sports.

Rev. E. H. Bryant and wife visited in Toledo Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Bryant sold his team to James Doig of Yaquina through an ad in THE LEADER.

E. H. Bryant and son Roy have their bicycles in running order now and enjoy wheeling along the upper farm road these days.

Shingles are being sawed out by the thousands at the mill. Shingles for ornamental work. All kinds of shingles.

Charlie McDonald and Robert Collins visited relatives in Toledo Saturday.

Curio hunters were visiting among Siletzites this week.

Ice cream is served every Saturday at the John Micek hotel.

Miss Kruger accompanied Mrs. Copeland to Portland Monday.

That was a welcome rain Friday for the gardens were thirsty.

Rain brought quite a number of peelers into Siletz on Sunday.

E. T. Hamar received a goodly supply of goods from Chicago Tuesday.

County Surveyor Wygant was casting the fly for the speckled beauties Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gardner of Toledo were forming acquaintances here last week.

Raymond Clay is dangerously sick at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams.

Will Thayer and family passed thro' the Agency Wednesday on their way to the county seat.

Andrew Winkler will soon have his house ready for occupancy on his place northeast of town.

Much new household furniture is being brought over from Toledo by our enterprising citizens.

Baldwin Fairchild visited bay points Tuesday. His strawberries at 50c per gallon are delicious.

Henry Collins and Oscar Ofstedahl called Tuesday on their way to their chittim camps east of town.

Abe Logan, Harry Chapman and Klamath Charlie are among the number hauling Government wood.

Alex Catfish was sick last year but this year he is showing the boys how things can and should be done.

George Hall passed through the agency with a large load of chittim bark Friday. The first load of the season.

W. N. Whitelaw has sold the chittim on his place near Euchre Mountain to E. H. Bryant. Trespassers are warned to keep off.

Albert Martin went to Toledo Monday, where he met his wife on the Tuesday morning train. They will remain in Toledo during the week.

The school board of this district met at Mrs. Copeland's Friday, pursuant to call of the clerk. John Kentta was elected director to fill the unexpired term of Fred Spencer, removed.

Hall Brothers have 65 acres of hay land and will bale the hay this year. Reports reach us from the valley and outlying points that hay is scarce and will consequently be very high in price the coming winter.

A band of serenaders broke the stillness of the Sabbath night with their sweet melodies under the windows of some of our distinguished citizens. C. E. Montgomery heard the soothing strains of "When sweetly dream, dream on, but instead, he arose and right royally treated the songsters.

For Sale—A good registered Short-horn bull. Apply to Robert Tassell Elk City, Oregon.

Fall Creek Items.

The bachelors think they will see better times this fall.

The school teacher, Mr. Nash, is back on the creek again.

Everybody is peeling chittim, as it is legal tender over here.

D. M. and F. B. Carns are going to shear Carlo Minotti's sheep next week.

W. H. Hamersly of Coryallis is visiting friends and relatives on Fall creek.

J. E. Taylor and Barney Seits have moved down on their homesteads to peel bark.

David Mangel is building a new barn which will be a great improvement over the old one.

A woman is wanted to do general housework. For further particulars inquire at the Palisade hotel.

Myrtle Carns and Mary Mangel are going to White Rock mountain for an outing. I don't think they will get all the way up there.

There will be a picnic on July 4 at Boysen's grove. Bring your baskets well filled. The bachelors are all going to get a square meal the 4th.

C. E. Carns has a 'phone which is the terminus of the line, but it will soon be built to A. J. Oglesby's, a distance of three miles up Fall creek. That will give the Saybrook farmer a chance to get a 'phone.

Waldport Items.

Rev. Silas Howell has bought a fine farm of Ernest Bobell on the Yachats.

We are having quite a boom at present and gladly welcome all who come.

The gasoline schooner Rio Rey is still here, but expects to leave in a few days.

There passed through this burg a few days ago five families from Linn county to spend a time on the beach at the "Rocks."

Commissioners Stanton and King spent a few days in our town last week, in the interest of good roads, we suppose. Come again, gentlemen.

Captain Louis Colvin took out his new launch and went to Tidewater and back with members of the Maccabee Lodge. They all report a fine time.

Rev. Olds and family have moved to this place to remain, having bought a piece of school land four miles from Waldport, and are now building a house. There is plenty of room for others here, and plenty of land to be bought cheap.

People coming down from Newport should remember that Frank Vader, our rustling mail-carrier of Waldport and Florence, has put on a fine team and wagon to accommodate visitors going to the Yachats or further down the beach, going south on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays and coming north on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays. Frank is very accommodating and all will be treated right.
