OUR SILETZ FRIENDS

Died at his home on Wednesday, at 1 p. m., June 22, Raymond Clay, aged 20 years. Raymond recently returned from Chemawa, where he has been attending school during the past year. He was a boy of no bad habits and universally loved. His mother, Mrs. John Adams, and relatives have the sympathy of everyone. The services were conducted by Rev. E. H. Bryant in the M. E. church, June 23. The house was crowded and the floral tributes were many and beautiful. In the Siletz cemetery he is resting, awaiting the resurrection of the dead.

Wm. Soule disposed of a large load of chittim bark to the Hall Brothers Tuesday. They are paying just as high a price as anyone.

Hattie Montgomery is assisting Mrs. Lester Waugh at their chittim camp near Canoe Landing.

Henry Johnson has bought the bark cutter of George Hall.

John Adams received $802 for the Joseph Adams allotment adjoining his home last week. This will help John greatly in the improvements on his own home that he now has under way.

The mill has been keeping late hours this week. They are crowding things these nice days.

The mail team nearly got away from C. M. Brown Tuesday. He had a narrow escape from a severe injury.

Have you seen that climbing rose at Frank Stanton's. It will repay you for the trouble to go and look at it.

Professor Dixon of Harvard College, who made many friends here during his stay a year ago, is with us again.

Walter Hall returned from a business trip to the valley Tuesday.

Frank McCormick is visiting at Newport.

Oscar Brown holds his head high these days. All because his wife presented him with a brand new boy last week.

Misses Anna and Frances Alexander and Mrs. Lavenia Altree came over on the stage Wednesday.

Alex Catfish made a business trip to the county seat Wednesday.

Hall Brothers have purchased considerable bark the past week and money is circulating freely.

Mrs. DeLaurier and Mrs. Bryant were in charge of the hotel during the absence of Mrs. Alexander's folks.

Fourth of July supplies on hand at our stores. A feather dance will be given in the evening.

Evening services will be discontinued at the M. E. church during the vacation.

Ted McElwain and a friend stopped at the Alexander hotel Monday night.

Surveyor Wygant's horse got away from him at his ranch and what a time he had. It had gone to Toledo.

Scott Lane and wife have been visiting valley points the past week.

Died—Saturday, June 25, 1904, at 9:30 a. m., at his home in Siletz, William H. Alexander. Mr. Alexander was born in Ohio, October 29, 1840. He came across the plains with his parents in 1846. In November, 1868, he was married in Toledo to Margary Elinor Graham. Nine children resulted from the union, eight of whom are living. They are: Mrs. Jessie F. Woodward of Baker City, Mrs. Eunice Aikin of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Inez Tillotson of Wamie, Mrs. Jennie Arnold of Toledo, Annie, Vena, Frances and William Alexander. All were present during the administration of the last sad rites by Rev. E. H. Bryant at Toledo cemetery Monday afternoon, as were also a large number of sympathizing friends. Appropriate music by the choir and a wealth of the most beautiful flowers were in evidence of the profound sympathy extended to the bereaved ones. Mr. Alexander was a man of good intellectual attainments, and during the past twenty years was intimately associated with the history of Lincoln county. He was one of the kindest of fathers, and was adored by his children. His affections are not blotted out, but intensified many fold.

Special Excursion to the World's Fair. The Denver & Rio Grande, in connection with the Missouri Pacific, will run a series of personally conducted excursions to the World's Fair during June. These excursions will run through to St. Louis without change of cars, making short stops at principal points en route. The first of these excursions will leave Portland June 7th, and the second June 17. The rate from Albany will be $70.75 to St. Louis and return. Excursionists going via the Denver & Rio Grande have the privilege of returning via a different route. This is the most pleasant way, as well as the most delightful route, to cross the continent. The stops arranged give an opportunity of visiting the various points of interest in and about Salt Lake City, Denver and Kansas City. If you wish to accompany one of these excursions write at once to W. C. McBride, 124 Third street, Portland, for sleeping car reservations.

POKER CHIPS.

There are more than four "knaves" to the pack in some games. In big hands, as with big guns, you want to look out for the recoil.

The moral motto, "Deal as you would be dealt by," is classed as the "joker" in a poker pack.

It is awfully bad form, you know, to let the loss of a few chips make you look as cross as if you thought you were getting the double one.

It may be good advice to "bet your hand for all it's worth," but it is a mighty dangerous thing to bet it for all or more than you are worth.

Novice asks which is the right way to cut the cards. Our experience teaches us, my boy, that the right way and at the same time the only safe one is to cut them precisely as does a gilded hog a shabby acquaintance.—New York Herald.

A Japanese Legend.

The renown of the Japanese for courage was as remarkable in Marco Polo's day as it is in the present. He narrates the story of an invasion of the country by the forces of the khan of Tartary. A Japanese army of 30,000 men was besieged in a tower. Refusing to surrender, they fought until all but eight of them were killed. On these eight—travelers' wonders must creep in—it was found impossible to inflict any wound. "Now, this was by virtue of certain stones which they had in their arms, inserted between the skin and the flesh. And the charm and virtue of these stones were such that those who wore them could never perish by steel." They were therefore beaten to death with clubs.

Making It Clear.

On board an ocean steamship a gentleman wished to help a lady who was of an inquiring mind to comprehend the principle of the steam engine. This is how he cleared away all difficulties: "Why, you see, ma'am," quoth he, "it's just one thing goes up and then another thing comes down, and then they let the smoke on, which makes the wheels go round. That's what they call the hydraulic principle. It's quite simple when you know it." "Law me! I never understood it before. But, then, I never had it properly explained," replied the fair listener. —Tit-Bits.

Realism Explained.

"That was a splendid back fall you made in your death scene last night," remarked a young member of the company to the eminent tragedian. The latter looked at the flatterer with a suspicious glare. "Yes," he said, "and I'd like to lay my hands on the blithering idiot who soaped the stage floor." —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Cautious Youth.

"Bobby, your father wants to see you." The boy looked dubious. "Do I want to see him?" he asked. "How should I know?" "You ought to be able to tell by the look in his eye." —Chicago Post.

Out of Her Line.

"So you were at Mrs. Marrable's dinner yesterday, Flossie. What was the menu like?" "I really can't tell you, for I didn't take any. It's a thing I very seldom touch."

Ordinary meadow grass rarely yields over a ton and a half of hay to the acre, but clover will give up to three tons.

Ignorance is bold and knowledge reserved.—Thucydides.
