"Jump-Off Joe."

Joe Albers of Corvallis had a narrow escape from drowning about 12 o'clock last Saturday night. Joe was jagged and walked off the platform in the rear of the Water Front saloon, dropping about 12 feet. His cries brought Ralph Van Cleve and Frank Parker to his assistance with a boat, but the tide was coming in rapidly and he was carried about one hundred yards, to a point near the corner of G. L. Gray's sawmill yard, before they reached him. The drowning man had ceased to struggle and only the top of his head was visible when his rescuers seized him and prevented him going to the bottom for his finish. He was unconscious when Frank and Ralph dragged him up the bank. By this time about a dozen persons had arrived and all joined in rolling Joe over a log and pumping water out and air in. Dr. Wetmore also appeared on the scene and administered restoratives, after which Joe was taken to the Parker House and put to bed. Here he became quite "bughouse," and to Ralph Van Cleve was assigned the pleasant job of sitting upon him until morning. By Sunday evening he was able to be around again and was placed aboard the train and sent home. Albers is about 50 years of age and is said to be an expert carpenter between drunks.

Appreciated.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Rose M. Sebenck and the other ladies of the W. R. C. for the beautiful cap recently presented by them to Robert Simpson.

MRS. CATHERINE CONKLIN,
ROBERT SIMPSON.

Ed Avery and family returned Saturday evening from a two-weeks' outing at Otter Rock. Ed says he caught a sturgeon—so long!

Sam Hill of Oua was in the city this week.

A. J. and R. N. Warnock of Eddyville were county seat visitors last Friday.

Joe Kosydar was over from Siletz yesterday with a load of fine chinook salmon.

Mrs. Maggie Rich will leave tomorrow morning for Spokane, Wash., for a protracted visit with her son, Ed Dunn.

A. R. Woodcock of Corvallis, representing the Washington Life Insurance Company, was doing business in Toledo the latter part of last week.

Fred Stanton and family, C. H. Young and R. H. Kaltz left yesterday morning for the Euchre mountain country. Stoney Wells and his mules conveyed them to Canoe Landing.

C. M. Carlson went to Portland Monday to visit his little son, who has been receiving medical treatment there for several weeks. Mrs. Carlson accompanied him as far as Nortons for a visit with relatives.

The Pacific Coast Indian Institute, which will convene at Newport next week, August 22, and continue until the 27th, is the second largest meeting devoted to Indian educational work in the United States, the largest gathering in that interest, of course, being the National Institute, which was held recently in St. Louis. The institute to be held in Newport will be very largely attended by the principal Indian educators of the Pacific coast and many who are connected with the other high educational institutions of the state, including President Campbell of the State University. Governor George E. Chamberlain will also be there.

Ed Stanton received painful but not serious injuries Tuesday. He had driven to Newport, where he expected to have his team taken across the bay, and then drive to his claim on the Yachats. Assisted by Henry Howell, he was unhitching the team, when one of the horses, which displays a rather ugly temper at times, jumped upon him, knocked him down and did a cakewalk upon his prostrate body. The horse was sharp-shod and Ed came out of the mixup with several severe wounds. He was unable to get his team across the bay, owing to a high wind, and drove back to his father's place on the Toledo-Siletz road. Although pretty badly crippled, he left yesterday morning for his claim, driving in via Philomath.

Mrs. J. D. Wetmore arrived home last Friday evening from a visit to the St. Louis Fair and her old home in Chicago; also Detroit and Grand Rapids, Mich. Mrs. Wetmore reports that the St. Louis exhibit is probably the finest in the history of expositions, but a grand holdup awaits the visitor from start to finish. There is a shortage of hotel accommodations, and she had the pleasure of paying $5 per night for a room—that or nothing. Distilled water was sold on the grounds for ten cents per glass. There is no competition in any particular line of necessities, an individual or firm having the full concession for each. The heat, night and day, has been intense, except while it was raining, and then the flat grounds of the Exposition became very muddy. Mrs. Wetmore appreciates the glorious climate of western Oregon more than ever before.

Three children of J. W. Flowers of Newport were taken to Portland Tuesday by Sheriff Ross and placed in charge of the Boys and Girls Aid Society. The children—two boys aged 11 and 5 and a girl aged 9—had become incorrigible and complaint was finally made by O. L. Holgate. County Judge Brown, Deputy District Attorney Swope and Sheriff Ross took evidence in the matter at Newport last Saturday. It was easily ascertained that the father had no control whatever over the children, and Judge Brown committed them to the care of the institution above mentioned.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dick depart tomorrow morning for Independence, where they expect to reside for a year, at least. They have not disposed of their Toledo property, and may get enough of the valley before the year is up. These good citizens have many friends in the community who will miss them, but wish them well during their absence.

J. S. Copeland came down from his Big Elk ranch Saturday evening, remaining until Monday. He reports that Fred Chambers and himself have been doing considerable in the chittim business, but will not sell until they get their price. They have also been slashing and burning and adding to the grass area of the ranch.

J. H. May of Mill 4 passed through yesterday morning en route to southern Oregon. He stopped at Philomath, where he will be joined tomorrow by his neighbor, Uncle George Boone. They may decide to remain at Medford and other points in the southern part of the state until next spring.

Mrs. George Baumann and son Ned, who have been visiting relatives and friends on the bay during the past month, leave tomorrow morning for their home at Gold Hill. The many friends of the family in Toledo and vicinity will be pleased, but not surprised, when they return to stay.

Commissioner Frank Thompson of Salado passed through Monday evening to Winant, where he joined Commissioner George King and they departed on a trip of inspection over the Newport-Siletz Bay wagon road.

Henry Schreyer of Fond du Lac, Wis., arrived in the city Wednesday from the Siuslaw country. He is looking for a home and went over to Siletz to inspect some of the Indian land advertised for sale in THE LEADER.

J. H. Blair of Elk City went through to Newport Tuesday evening to consult Dr. Parker. One of his limbs which was injured several years ago has been causing him considerable trouble this summer.

C. C. Avery and L. E. Shears of Portland have been enjoying themselves at various spots in Lincoln county during the past week. Mr. Avery is a brother of fellow-citizen E. J. Avery.

Neil Newhouse, head sawyer in Gray's mill, left yesterday morning for his home in Corvallis, where he will remain until another supply of logs is in the boom.

Miss Iva Crawford of Portland, who has been visiting friends in the city, returned Wednesday morning from an outing at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bozorth and Mrs. S. C. Dyer and son Connell of Depot left Wednesday morning for a visit at Salem.

Z. J. McGuire of Eddyville had business in the city Wednesday night.
