FOR PRESIDENT
THEODORE ROOSEVELT
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS

Judge Parker, the Democratic nominee for President, has decided, it is reported, to make no speeches in his own behalf during the present campaign. The Judge has evidently received a hunch from the old adage, "Speech is silver, but silence is golden," and will offer Bryan and himself as proof.

Disastrous storms, causing great loss of life and property, continue to attract attention to the blessed east. Meanwhile inquiries from the east about the Oregon coast country are coming thick and fast. There's balm in Web-foot. Come on with your aches and pains and shattered nerves and—legal tender.

Same old story—heavy firing all along the line, but Port Arthur still stands.

Prof. Potter's Pretty Pupil.

A dispatch from Chemawa to the Oregonian says:

Word was received here that Superintendent T. W. Potter of the Indian Training school here was married at Redding, Cal., Thursday to Miss Mary J. Smith, a pupil in the school since 1895. The announcement occasioned great surprise, as neither teachers nor pupils were aware of the romance progressing under their very eyes. The ceremony took place in a parsonage at Redding, which is the nearest railroad station to the bride's old home. The bride was given away by her brother, James Smith, who is an employe at the Chemawa school. Her sister, Alice, attended her as bridesmaid, and the young woman's mother and step-father were witnesses. After the ceremony and a wedding supper at the hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Potter left on the Overland for San Francisco. From there they will go to Mr. Potter's ranch at Albany, Cal., after which they will visit the World's Fair at St. Louis.

The bride is a charming young woman, who has endeared herself to her schoolmates and teachers during her stay at the institution. She is about 18 years of age and has been prominently identified with Y. W. C. A. work at the school. She is a quarter blood Wintone, and her home was near Redding, Cal. She would have graduated in two years.

Superintendent Potter is well known in the state and throughout the Indian service. He is a man approaching 50 years. For the past 18 years he has been in the service in some capacity or other. He began his work in Indian Territory. From there he went to Carlisle School, where he was employed as a teacher until he was promoted and given a superintendency. It was in the early '90s that Potter began his career as superintendent of an Indian school. He was at Fort Totten, N. D., and later at Cherokee, N. C. At this latter place he met and married his first wife, an Indian woman and the daughter of a powerful Cherokee chief. She was famed throughout her section of the country as a beauty.

Mr. Potter had recently resigned from the superintendency of the Chemawa school after an investigation by the Government showing that his management had been very satisfactory. He will return about October 1 to turn the school over to E. L. Chalcraft, the new appointee.

Special Excursions to St. Louis.

September 5, 6 and 7 and October 3, 4 and 5 are the remaining dates upon which tickets will be sold at the reduced rates to the St. Louis Fair. These rates apply over the Denver and Rio Grande and Missouri Pacific. For the patrons of these roads special excursion cars will be run through from Portland and St. Louis without change. See the many points of interest about the Mormon Capital and take a ride through Nature's picture gallery.

During the closing months travel to the Fair will be very heavy. If you contemplate going, write W. C. McBride, general agent at Portland for the Denver and Rio Grande, for particulars of these excursions.

The New York World

Thrice-a-Week Edition

Read Where'er the English Language is Spoken

The tickets are now made up and the most interesting Presidential campaign the United States has known since 1860 has begun. And is the most important too.

Which will it be, Parker and Davis or Roosevelt and Fairbanks? Nobody knows yet, but the Thrice-a-Week World will tell you promptly, fully and truthfully every movement of the hot and thrilling campaign. The real newspaper now prints facts rather than hopes, and it has always been the effort of the Thrice-a-Week World to tell the thing that has happened exactly as it happened. Thus you can judge for yourself and form your opinion.

There is also a great war going on in the East, where the World has a brilliant staff of correspondents in the field, and their reports are found regularly in the columns of the Thrice-a-Week World.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50

Excursions to Shows.

The big Ringling shows and circus will be in Albany September 1, and on this occasion excursion trains will be run on the Corvallis & Eastern railroad from both ends of the line, at a fare for the round trip, not to exceed $1. The two special trains will both arrive here before the street parade, which will be held at 10 a. m., on Thursday, September 1. The train from Yaquina will leave that place at 5:15 a. m., arriving at Albany at 9:35; the one from Detroit will leave that place at 6:25, arriving in Albany at 9:25 a. m., giving the passengers ample time to see the parade. Both trains will leave the Albany station for the return trip at 6 p. m., thus giving the excursionists plenty of time to visit the big Ringling shows for the afternoon performance.

The train will leave Toledo at 5:41, Elk City at 6:09, Morrison 6:17, Chitwood at 6:27, Eddyville at 6:40, Nortons at 7:02, Nashville 7:17, Summit 7:39, Blodgett 7:56, Wren 8:18, Philomath 8:41, Corvallis 8:56; arrive Albany 9:35. This will be the regular train on above date, going east—the only one.

I have 150 cords of dry vine maple wood for sale at $3 per cord delivered. Leave orders at Henry Lewis' store in Toledo. I. B. McJunkin.
