FOR PRESIDENT

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS

Some of the Democratic newspapers are just now engaged in trying to figure out to what extent Mr. Bryan's speeches are benefitting Judge Parker. After it is all over we believe the Judge will be justified in starting a damage suit against his famous Nebraska "supporter."

The new battleship Nebraska was launched at Seattle the other day. While the vessel, when completed, will be at the head of her class, a more important fact is that the building of the vessel on the Pacific Coast gave Governor Mickey and other prominent Nebraskans the opportunity to visit a good country; to feast their eyes upon the site of the Lewis and Clark Fair. It was a treat to the inhabitants of the plains and they will go home and tell about it.

One of our exchanges—a political wart emanating from a ruptured gall duct—refers to President Roosevelt as the "Cowboy President," and makes the astounding announcement that Mr. Roosevelt claims Thomas Jefferson to have been "The most incapable of all our presidents," but fails to tell the people where he got his authority for the statement. Such arguments are without weight and make no impression on the minds of intelligent American citizens. The very fact that the author of this egregious joke poses as a Democrat would make the bones of Thomas Jefferson rattle in protest at the insult to Democracy.

Lewis and Clark Fair Coins.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition Company offers for sale at the price of two dollars each, 25,000 Souvenir Gold Dollars. To each purchaser of five coins will be given one coin free of charge, making six for ten dollars. These coins are issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, under authority of an act of Congress, approved by President Roosevelt, April 13, 1904. The issue is limited to 250,000. These coins are for sale at the Lincoln County Bank.

These coins are singularly interesting from the fact that they have two heads or obverses. On one side is the head of Captain William Clark and the words "United States of America" and "One Dollar." On the other side appears the head of Captain Meriweather Lewis and the words "Lewis-Clark Exposition, Portland, Ore." and the date. The coin has neither wreath nor stars.

Some estimate of the value of this small issue of souvenir legal tender gold dollars may be made from the present value of the ordinary United States gold dollar, of which there were coined 19,499,337 between the years 1849 and 1890. These now sell for two dollars each.

No coins of this issue will be placed upon sale at a lower figure than is quoted in this circular. All coins are sent to purchasers by registered mail at the expense of the Exposition Company.

Yours respectfully,
HENRY E. REED, Secretary.
