Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." These Tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Butt's Brickbats.

Two brickbats for which William Butt paid $750 are lying on an ash heap back of his boarding-house in this city. In his room, but hateful to his sight, is a small, neat box that fastens with an ordinary key lock. The box originally contained the bricks, and the bricks were shipped to him by express from Newark, N. J.—and were paid for in advance.

Mr. Butt deeply regrets a trip to Newark, from which place he returned this week. When he went away he told his friends he was called east to dispose of a patent, for which he had been offered $500. He told his family in eastern Oregon that when he returned he would bring them a lot of Christmas presents. When he reached Newark he met by appointment a green-goods agent and invested $750 in counterfeit bills ranging in denomination from $1 to $100. He saw the goods packed in the box, witnessed its consignment at the Newark express office to his address in Portland. He then left for home, arriving here a day ahead of the box.

When it came it brought the two brickbats aforesaid, instead of $7,000 in bright green bills. Mr. Butt was "broke," and hungry. He borrowed a few dollars from a friend and found a job painting a house. What worries him most is to make good his promise of Christmas presents for the folk at home.—Portland Journal.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.
