Vatican Treasures for the Fair.

The fine arts exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial will receive an almost priceless addition in the shape of a collection of Vatican treasures from Rome. The Cardinal Secretary of State has given permission to Rev. J. T. McNally, special commissioner to Rome, to transfer the sacred treasures, which were exhibited at St. Louis, and supplement the collection by additions imported from Rome. The exhibit embraces manuscripts, paintings, mosaics, Byzantine work from the Apse of the basilica of St. John Lateran, and some objects of art never before shown.

At least four very valuable pieces of mosaic may come, which will be highly prized by art lovers visiting the Exposition. These are copies of Raphael's Madonna Della Seggiola, in mosaic; of the Madonna of Barbino, both originals in the Pitti Palace at Florence, Italy; of the Arch of Titus; and a tavola di lavoro, or a small table showing the method of working the mosaics. Seven pieces of Byzantine work from celebrated architecture are also expected, as well as a very fine death mask and hand of Pope Leo XIII.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Pottersville, Mich. "They are easy to take and always give satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint." For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

On account of the large acreage of water at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, special attention will be given to water sports. Mimic naval battles, on a scale impossible at previous Expositions, will be held during the Fair.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
