

A Child Can Buy as Cheap as a Man at Stewart's

Let's Have a Talk:

NOW IT'S JUST THIS WAY: I have just got in my Fall Stock of Dry Goods and Shoes. These stocks are not the largest in Oregon, or anything like that, but

They are Good-Sized Stocks and Well-Selected, Seasonable Goods

I am selling them a little closer than the same quality of goods were ever sold for before in Lincoln county. To be honest, I have got to sell them, as I must keep things going.

Maybe you do not trade with me; maybe you do; but whether you do or not, wouldn't it be fair to look my stock over and see what I've got, and what I ask for it?

I am still selling Clothing at Cost, but you will have to come soon for a good selection.

That 20-cent Ladies' Hose is a cracker-jack, all right. I can't tell you all of it. Come in and see the goods.

WINTER EXCURSION RATES.

A New Departure on the Southern Pacific and Corvallis & Eastern Railroads.

Recognizing a long-felt want, and desiring to give the public cheap rates to the coast in the winter as well as the summer, for persons who desire to see the bounding billows in their wildest moods and imbibe the pure ozone of the winter air at the coast, the Southern Pacific Company in connection with the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad have placed on sale, taking effect November 2, 1904, and continuing until March 31, 1905, from all points on their lines, round trip tickets to Yaquina at the same rate as during the summer. These tickets will be sold on Wednesdays and Saturdays only and will be good for return sixty days from date of sale.

Dr. Minthorn's sanitary baths will be in operation and anyone who desires a genuine health resort during the winter cannot do better than spend a month or so at Yaquina.

Similar tickets will be sold from Albany, Corvallis, Philomath and all points west on the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad.

Full information as to rates, baggage, etc., can be obtained by applying to the nearest S. P. agent or direct from W. E. Coman, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or Edwin Stone, manager, C. & E. R. R. Co., Albany.

P. S.—Through tickets to Portland are sold by the C. & E. at Corvallis, and by the S. P., Portland to Corvallis via Albany and the C. & E. at the same rate as via the west side, viz: $2.00. C. & E. trains connect at Albany with the Albany-Portland local both ways.

An Albany lawyer is given to swearing. One night his small boy was sitting by him, studying arithmetic. "What on earth ails you? Why don't you sit still—wriggling and writhing every minute?" asked the father. "It's all your fault," blubbered the boy. "Why is it?" "Cause I asked you last night how much a billion was and you said it was a—lot." The teacher asked me the same question today. I said the same thing. And that's why I can't keep still."

I have children's hats at 50 cents, 75 cents and $1. Also this year's street hats at cost. Mrs. M. WYGAN.

Johnson Items.

John Bones went to Cloverdale last week on business.

Misses Edith Ball and Pearl Bones returned home to Kernville Friday from an outing on the beach. They made John Bones' place a visit. Their school commences soon.

A terrific storm swept along the coast Wednesday night, tearing the fireplace chimney from George Parmele's house, twisting off a large hemlock tree near the corner of his storehouse and hurling it north near the house. Had it struck it, many dollars worth of goods would have been destroyed. A profusion of limbs were thrown in the yard and many other trees were uprooted and broken off. It seemed every tree in the forest was bowing; the crashing and cracking made such a roar.

Harry Thorp and John Block caught a young deer near Parmele's in Drift creek. It had been chased by dogs and was nearly exhausted. It had crawled out of the and had laid down when they came along and picked it up.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with Lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Waldport Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Vader of Yachats were visiting in our city one day last week.

Mrs. William Hosford is reported to be quite sick.

Captain Wakefield returned to Waldport, after several weeks at the county seat.

Nettie Ludeman came in from Yachats to attend the ragged dance.

Sammie Webb and Gertie Buker were the raggedest people in town Friday night.

Will Harrison and Henry Howell were over to see us Monday.

The dance Friday night was to have been a ragged one, but several of our young ladies appeared dressed in the very height of fashion with evening ball dresses.

Dr. Carter was in our midst for a day two last week.

Elmer Helms and family have moved back to their home on the Yachats.

D. W. Graff, who has been quite sick, is reported somewhat better.

Bob Mann and George McCluskey passed through here Sunday on their way to Toledo from Tenmile, where George has been holding down his claim.

George Bobell returned from a visit with friends on the Yachats and reports dear scarce.

Clara Graff left for Newport Monday after visiting several days at home.

Our sidewalks are in a deplorable condition and it is very dangerous to be out after dark. It does seem as though the Board of Trade would fix them up. (Do it now.)

Mrs. E. McMillan and Maud Helms are on the sick list.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker of Porterville, California. There is doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

Aquarium for the Fair.

An aquarium which will contain several hundred varieties of fish will be a feature of The United States Government exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial. The Exposition authorities have received a communication from the Government Commission asking that a supply of fresh, cold water of 200 gallons a minute be provided for the fisheries wing of the Government building.

Huge glass tanks from six to twelve feet long will be erected in the fisheries section, containing all known members of the finny tribe that the Government can collect. The tanks will be above the level of the floor, and the light will come from above, so that the visitors to the exhibit can see the fish swimming about in their natural element. Several hundred feet of glass walls will be necessary to display the fish true to life. The department will be in charge of experts from the Government department, who will attend to the proper care and feeding of the fish.

It is said that special arrangements will have to be made for the accommodation of the chinook salmon, as he will butt his head against the wall if confined in a limited tank, causing his own death. Impatient of restraint, the salmon would, if allowed, commit suicide by charging against the walls of his prison. It is believed that to overcome this suicidal propensity of the salmon that smaller circular tanks will need to be provided for the accommodation of the chinooks. In such quarters the fish could not get sufficient headway, and the curved wall would not offer so much resistance for him to kill himself by impact with the walls.

Imperfect Digestion.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle at Otto O. Krogstad's.

Woman, Lovely Woman.

Bob Burdette pays the following tribute to woman: "She cannot sharpen pencils outside of commercial circles; she can't tie a package to look like anything save a crooked section of chaos; but land of miracles, see what she can do with a pin! She cannot walk so many miles around a pool table with nothing to drink but she can walk all night with a fretful baby. She can ride 580 miles without going into a smoking car to rest and get away from the children. She can enjoy an evening at home without smoking a dozen cigars. She can endure the distraction of a house full of children all day, while her husband sends them to bed before he has been home an hour. A boy with a sister is fortunate, a fellow with a sweet girl cousin is to be envied, a young man with a sweetheart is happy and a man with a good wife is blessed more than all."
