In the matter of the petition of Hoxie Simmons for appointment as supervisor to work on Siletz road. Dismissed.
In the matter of the resignation of D. D. Warnock as supervisor of district No. 11. Accepted and J. G. Standard appointed to fill vacancy.
In the matter of the subscription list of The Lincoln County Leader. The Court having examined the list and being satisfied that The Leader has the largest circulation of any paper in the county, it is hereby declared the official paper of the County Court.
In the matter of levying a tax for School District No. 14 to apply to bonded interest or sinking fund of said district. Whereas, School District No. 14 of Lincoln county, Oregon, has created a bonded indebtedness in the sum of $500, and whereas, said school district has failed or refused to levy the necessary sum to pay the interest due thereon for the year 1904, as by law provided, in the sum of $30, as shown by the certificate of the County Treasurer of said county, and whereas, it is necessary that a tax levy on the taxable property situated in said school district should be made at a sufficient rate to raise the above-named amount of interest on said bonds, now therefore, be it ordered by the Court that a tax of 3 mills for the purpose of paying the interest due on said bonds for the year 1904 be and the same is hereby levied upon all taxable property, both real and personal, situated in said school district No. 14, as by law provided.
C. M. BROWN, County Judge.
GEORGE KING, Commissioner.
F. A. THOMPSON, Commissioner.
In the matter of appointing road supervisors in districts No. 2, 15 and 19. The matter of appointing supervisors in these districts coming on for consideration, it is ordered that Charles Stouder be appointed supervisor of district No. 2, C. H. Ruhl of district No. 15 and J. F. Proctor of district No. 19.
In the matter of Lincoln county's maintaining an exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair.
The Court, acting on numerous petitions from taxpayers and believing that it will be for the best interest of the county to make and maintain an exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair at Portland, Oregon, from June 1 to October 1, 1905, and believing that the people and taxpayers of the county are in accord with the matter, and having the promise of a rebate of $500 from the Fair Association on condition of the county's appropriating $1000, it is agreed by this court, and it is hereby ordered that we set aside an amount not to exceed $1000 to be used for the necessary expense of collecting and maintaining said exhibit, and the funds set aside by this Court for this purpose shall be handled and disbursed exclusively by a committee, consisting of the County Judge, C. M. Brown, County Commissioner, George King, and C. F. Soule, who shall have power to incur any necessary expense within said limit in collecting and maintaining said exhibit, and the clerk of Lincoln county is hereby ordered to draw all warrants for said purpose by the instructions of said committee or a majority of the same, at such times and in favor of such parties as they may designate.

Dated this 7th day of January, 1905.
C. M. BROWN, County Judge,
GEORGE KING, Commissioner,
F. A. THOMPSON, Commissioner.
There being no further business, Court adjourned until February 8, 1905, unless sooner convened by order of the County Judge. Read and approved.
C. M. BROWN, County Judge,
GEORGE KING, Commissioner,
F. A. THOMPSON, Commissioner.
Attest: IRA WADE, Clerk.
Another Good Time.
Abe Lincoln Post G. A. R. and Abe Lincoln Woman's Relief Corps held their regular joint installation and campfire Tuesday night in the presence of a large number of members and invited guests.
Captain H. R. Sturdevant installed the new officers of both Post and Corps and did very well, although he was noticeably nervous during the latter duty. The somewhat lofty and dignified airs assumed by the women seemed to discommodate the Captain. Following are the new officers of the Post: J. H. McNeil, Post Commander.
H. E. Collins, Senior Vice.
A. O. Hooker, Junior Vice.
H. R. Sturdevant, Officer of the Day.
F. M. Carter, Surgeon.
C. C. Kubler, Chaplain.
F. M. Wadsworth, Quartermaster.
Job Arnold, Officer of the Guard.
Following are officers of the Corps for the ensuing term:
President, Elma Hyde.
Senior Vice, Matilda Espy.
Junior Vice, Mary Wygant.
Secretary, Ida Sturdevant.
Treasurer, Iva Center.
Chaplain, Ada Soule.
Conductor, Jennie Fish.
Guard, Mary Arnold.
Assistant Conductor, Lydia DeLaurier.
Assistant Guard, Catherine Collins.
Patriotic Instructor, Mamie Wakefield.
Press Correspondent, Ada Soule.
Musician, Ella Stewart.
Color Bearers—No. 1, Maybel Bethers; No. 2, Ethel Ross; No. 3, Eva Peterson; No. 4, Rosa Schenck.
Following the installation came the campfire and the usual supply of good things to eat which have made the local Corps famous. Only two or three of the veterans failed to respond according to program. Those who obeyed orders gave interesting talks, but Comrade Mills, a visitor from Tillamook, made them all look like raw recruits. Taps were sounded soon after midnight.
A full line of Rubber goods at Stewart's store.
Merchant Gardner had business at Siletz Tuesday.
William Seese of Siletz was in the city Wednesday.
Fred Bailey and son Walter were visitors from Winant Tuesday.
Sheriff Ross returned Tuesday evening from an official trip to Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McDonald of Chitwood visited in the city Monday night.
Charlie Ruhl was in the county seat several days on business, returning Wednesday to his home in Siletz.
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Howell and Miss Addie Harrison returned Sunday from a visit with relatives and friends in the Beaver creek country.
Your wife, or my wife, or your mother-in-law may be eloquent talkers, which usually is the case, but the Talk-o-phone given away by Krogstad can easily scoop them all without half trying.

W. O. W., Attention.
Pocahontas Camp No. 290 will entertain the members of Syringa Circle next Friday evening, January 20, at the hall in Toledo. There will be a program including music, a farce—"The Latest Sensation"—supper and games, including dear old Bingo. Members of the Circle and their families and Woodmen and their families are invited and expected to be present. Their will be no special invitations. Guests will come not earlier than 8:30 p. m. as the Woodhold a business meeting first. Members of the Camp are requested to meet at 7:30 sharp.
By order of the Committee.
Circle Will Entertain.
Syringa Circle No. 21, Women of Woodcraft, will entertain Pocahontas Camp tonight at Woodmen Hall. All husbands of Circle members and wives of Woodmen are invited. The Circle members should all be present by 7:30. Guests will be admitted at 8:30.
By order of Committee.
A little real snow fell yesterday.
Willie Simpson of Elk City was in Toledo Tuesday.
J. S. Copeland was down from his Salado ranch yesterday.
George Landreth sells the best talk-ophones on the market. Hear them.
Do not forget that Mrs. Wygant is selling out her hats and notions at cost.
Landlord Pete Abbey of Newport was a passenger valleyward Tuesday morning.
Some good furniture and cooking utensils for sale cheap. Inquire at the Depot.
Henry Nice of Lutjens was among the eastbound passengers Tuesday morning.
Mrs. S. E. Gray of Philomath is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Bethers.
The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. O. B. DeLaurier, to tie comforters. Come.
Miss Mary Blodgett of Blodgett is in the city. She will probably teach the next term of school in the Salado district.
Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Thayer, who had been visiting C. B. Crosno and family, returned Monday to their home at Brownsville.
Select your garden seeds early and don't forget to ask for a free ticket in Krogstad's Talk-o-phone drawing to place in or about June first.
Charlie Hyde, who has been employed at Corvallis for some time, came in Monday night for a visit with his parents, County Treasurer and Mrs. J. L. Hyde.
While chopping wood last Friday J. H. McNeil drove the axe into his left foot, making a very bad wound. He is getting around on crutches, but will be off duty for some time.
C. H. Young returned Monday evening from a visit at Portland. He reports that city overflowing with laborers and mechanics of all kinds who have been attracted by the construction of the Lewis and Clark Fair buildings.
Oscar Tom of Angora informs THE LEADER that he is willing to make a display of honey for Lincoln county at the Lewis and Clark Fair and will help in every way possible. Mr. Tom's enterprising spirit and loyalty are appreciated.
Robert Depoe, son of Charlie Depoe of Siletz, arrived last Saturday from Lawrence, Kan., where he is taking the law course at the State University. Robert is one of the brightest Indians in Oregon and is taking advantage of his opportunities.
Express Messenger William Toner and family of Yaquina passed through Monday morning on their way to McMinnville. Mr. Toner received a message Sunday announcing the death of his mother at her home in McMinnville. She was 72 years old, her husband, ten years her senior, survives her.
The following out-of-town citizens were present Tuesday night at the installation and campfire of the local G. A. R. Post and Relief Corps: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Powers, Morrison; Mrs. O. G. Dalaba, Elk City; Miss Mamie Wakefield, Eddyville; Misses Mollie and Minnie Blower, Mill 4; C. C. Kubler, Newport; Dr. F. M. Carter, Yaquina; Walter Hall, Siletz.
