Fall Creek Items.

Ting Norwood of Monroe is visiting relatives and friends on Fall Creek.

There was a dance at Burt Barclay's Wednesday night.

F. J. Carns and Glenn Mangel are going to send a jug of cider for the Lewis and Clark Fair, but they say they will not send it by a prohibitionist.

F. B. Carns and A. J. Oglesby went to Alsea to make arrangements for a telephone connection at the Alsea store.

Billy Oglesby still makes his regular trips to Alsea.

People traveling along the road past the Saybrook farm should hold a tight rein on their horses.

Lots of work going on in the way of brush-cutting. Matt says he is going to turn over a new leaf, but if he keeps on cutting brush there will be no trees for the leaves to grow on.

Clare Trenholm says he doesn't care whether school keeps or not as long as the cider is all right. There are others on the creek who think the same way.

C. E. Carns made a flying trip Tuesday to Alsea.

Carlotti Minotti is at work pruning his orchard.

Ethel Mangel and Myrtle Carns got some nice presents a few days ago from their friends up north.

Otto Dieckhoff and Henry Boysen were out hunting Wednesday. They report game scarce.

I have not slighted any of the neighbors; their names are all here. So good-bye for this time. TILLIKUM.

Rev. Carlisle P. Martin, L. L. D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Imperfect Digestion.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle at Otto O. Krogstad's.

A traveling man who drove across the country to a little town in Western Kansas, the other day, met a farmer hauling a wagon load of water. "Where do you get water?" he asked. "Up the road about seven miles," the farmer replied. "And you haul water seven miles for your family and stock?" "Yep." "Why, in the name of sense, don't you dig a well?" asked the traveler. "Because it is just as far one way as the other, stranger."

A MATTER OF HEALTH

An agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect is produced by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

Johnson Items.

Chesley Bones had quite a blood-curdling experience with a bear last week. He was viewing out a road across his father's place on the beach and came close to a nest of young bear. The mother, deeming his visit an unfriendly one, growled and came at him. Mr. Bones fearlessly stood his ground, intending to defend himself with the only weapon he had, which was an ax. As the bear came near enough he struck a heavy blow, cutting the beast across the forehead, but not deep enough to cause instant death. Mr. Bones called for a gun and the bear struck for the mountains. After taking the young ones from the nest and sending them home several neighbors gathered on the battlefield with guns and dogs and taking the trail of blood followed the bear up Schooner creek until darkness stopped the search. The next morning the trail was taken again, but rain set in and the trail was lost. The little ones' eyes are closed, but they are doing well on cow's milk.

Willie Bones has returned from the Valley and reports boggy weather out there.

Mr. Affolter is busy running his saw-mill. The mill works fine when he has water enough.

Jakie Johnson lost his best horse last week. Jakie is an enterprising Indian and a good neighbor. We sympathize with him in his loss.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Absolutely Harmless.

The fault of giving children medicine containing injurious substances, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Waldport Items.

Henry Nice returned Saturday from Portland.

Captain W. R. Wakefield came home Wednesday morning from Toledo, where he has been working on the tax rolls.

B. F. Swope, Drs. Carter and Parker and Sheriff Ross were in town during the week.

Miss Meta Bobell, who has been visiting at Lutjens for a few days, returned home Saturday.

C. R. Evens came home from Portland by way of Alsea Valley and brought down a boat load of freight.

Clara Graff and Lesia Evens are visiting with friends and relatives in Waldport.

E. G. Sharratt, the genial postmaster and storekeeper at Lutjens, was found Saturday morning about seven o'clock by Mrs. Green, with whom he boards, lying in bed with a .22 rifle bullet in his head, the ball having entered just below the jaw and ranging in and upward, and as near as the doctors can determine is lodged at the base of the brain. Mr. Sharratt is still alive, but very low.

Ellis Vader was in town Saturday night to attend lodge.

Supervisor Stouder has gone up the river to finish cutting the road out to Tidewater, with a number of men, and we hope that bone of contention will soon be finished.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canham, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with Lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

The order of Railway Conductors will hold its biennial session at the Lewis and Clark Fair on May 9.

Norwegian singing societies will have a special day at the Lewis and Clark Centennial for a reunion of members and a contest for prizes.

An airship tournament will be an attraction at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. Large prizes will be awarded to the successful contestants.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker of Porterville, California. There is doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Otto O. Krogstad.

For Sale.

I will sell my 400 acre stock ranch located in Little Elk valley, 4 1/2 miles to station on the C. & E. Railroad. 90 acres in pasture and meadow; two good barns and house; good well; plenty of running water the year round; good out range. For further information call on or address IRVEN MAGEE, Eddyville, Oregon.
