More from Fall Creek.

FALL CREEK, April 10, 1905.
Editor LEADER:

We notice there has been quite a discussion going on through the columns of THE LEADER in regard to our telephone line, and, as I am a member of the Fall Creek Mutual Telephone Company, perhaps I can explain the matter. We will not attempt to correct the mistakes in the Fall Creek items of February 24, as that has been done by T. J. Carns; but to the answer to his article we will say that while we admire some things contained therein, we think they are a little hard on the Fall Creek people. It is true that if each citizen would do all he could to put down lying, stealing, incendiarism, drink—and we would also add, forgery and murder—the country would certainly be better off, but we fail to see wherein our company has been guilty of any of the aforesaid crimes, but we think it very kind of the writer to attend so closely to Mr. Tom's business, as he is a man but little past 50 years of age and we know he must feel grateful for this favor. When we had our first telephone meeting Mr. Taylor was present for the purpose of selling us this line belonging to him and Mr. Vidito, but there seemed to be a misunderstanding and Oscar Tom claimed to own a part interest in the line, so they decided to postpone the meeting, in hope it could be settled satisfactorily to all; but as Mr. Tom did not prove an interest in the line, Mr. Taylor agreed to give us a bill of sale to the line, and he plainly stated that Mr. Tom owned no interest in the line; so another meeting was held and the line bargained for, but it has not been signed over to the company yet, and will not be for a short time. I feel quite sure that if Mr. Tom proves an interest in the line he will be dealt fairly with. Therefore, as the line has not changed hands, we would advise that it retain its old name—the Taylor and Vidito line. After the deal is completed, if our worthy correspondent sees fit to suggest a name, we will consider it.

CLAIRE TRENHOLM.

[This is positively the close of this controversy, so far as THE LEADER is concerned, both sides having had a hearing.]

Rheumatic Pains Quickly Relieved.

The excruciating pains characteristic of rheumatism and sciatica are quickly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The great pain relieving power of the liniment has been the surprise and delight of thousands of sufferers. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Millinery Opening.

On Saturday, April 22, I will have my spring and summer stock of millinery, dress goods, etc., ready for inspection—the latest of everything in these lines. My stock of street hats has already arrived. Call and see them.

EXTENDING WINTER RATES

To Yaquina Bay Which to People Wishing to Enjoy Nature's Beauties Proves so Popular.

The low rates in effect from points on the S. P. to Yaquina Bay during the winter, which proved so popular with the people wishing to view the beauties of nature at that magnificent seaside resort, have been extended during the month of April, and tickets will be sold on Wednesdays and Saturdays until the last of April, good for return at any time up to May 31, 1905.

The month of April should be a favorite one for visiting the seaside, where "Smiling Spring her earliest visit pays," and where the health-giving breezes of the Pacific will banish "Spring Fever" and other ills to which flesh is heir.

Tickets from all East Side points to all West Side points, and vice versa, via the C. & E. are also on sale; and on April 1st tickets to all West side points will be on sale by the C. & E. at Albany; and to all East side points on the S. P. by the C. & E. at Corvallis on which baggage can be checked through to destination, thus avoiding delay and annoyance to passengers traveling between East and West side points.

Full information as to rates, baggage, etc., can be obtained by applying to the nearest S. P. agent or direct from W. E. Coman, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or T. H. Curtis, Acting Manager, C. & E. R. R. Co., Albany.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.

It immediately relieves a hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, druggist, Shullsburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

For Sale.

A good farm of 360 acres, about 100 acres on river; 1 1/4 miles good fence, 2 acres fine orchard, just in bearing; 140 good goats, about half and half wethers and nannies—will increase about 50 or 60 beginning April 1; 50 head good sheep; 7 head cattle, including 4 good cows soon to be fresh; 2 good young horses; everything on ranch goes except bedding and wearing apparel. One-half mile from schoolhouse, post office and sawmill. Address
W. H. DANIEL,
Elk City, Oregon.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Talk-o-phone Given Away.

With every purchase of fifty cents worth of garden, vegetable and flower seed you will be entitled to a free ticket by which you may win the best talking singing and playing machine now on the market. Sample of the machine seen and heard at my store or at Landreth's barbershop. Yours for business
OTTO O. KROGSTAD.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better usage. It is a dandy for burns. Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c, $1 bottle. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.
