EXTENDING WINTER RATES

To Yaquina Bay Which to People Wishing to Enjoy Nature's Beauties Proves so Popular.

The low rates in effect from points on the S. P. to Yaquina Bay during the winter, which proved so popular with the people wishing to view the beauties of nature at that magnificent seaside resort, have been extended during the month of April, and tickets will be sold on Wednesdays and Saturdays until the last of April, good for return at any time up to May 31, 1905.

The month of April should be a favorite one for visiting the seaside, where "Smiling Spring" her earliest visit pays, and where the health-giving breezes of the Pacific will banish "Spring Fever" and other ills to which flesh is heir.

Tickets from all East Side points to all West Side points, and vice versa, via the C. & E. are also on sale; and on April 1st tickets to all West side points will be on sale by the C. & E. at Albany; and to all East side points on the S. P. by the C. & E. at Corvallis on which baggage can be checked through to destination, thus avoiding delay and annoyance to passengers traveling between East and West side points.

Full information as to rates, baggage, etc., can be obtained by applying to the nearest S. P. agent or direct from W. E. Coman, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or T. H. Curtis, Acting Manager, C. & E. R. R. Co., Albany.

A Kansas City young man who had just married suggested to his wife that they argue some question fully and frankly every morning in order to know more of each other. The first question happened to be, "Can a woman dress on seventy-five dollars a year?" He took the affirmative, and when last seen was climbing into a hay loft with the evident intention of pulling the ladder up after him.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.

It immediately relieves a hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, druggist, Shullsburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

For Sale.

A good farm of 360 acres, about 100 acres on river; 1 1/2 miles good fence, 2 acres blue orchard, just in bearing; 140 good goats, about half and half wethers and nannies—will increase about 50 or 60 beginning April 1; 50 head good sheep; 7 head cattle, including 4 good cows soon to be fresh; 2 good young horses; everything on ranch goes except bedding and wearing apparel. One-half mile from schoolhouse, post-office and sawmill. Address W. H. DANIEL, Elk City, Oregon.

A COONSKIN FARE.

It Would Have Paid the Traveler to Let the Change Go.

Many years ago, as the story runs, when coonskins were worth six bits apiece in Arkansas and a regular fee of two bits was assessed for ferrying a horseman across the St. Francis river, there came along a traveler whose entire capital consisted of but a single pelt, and the ferryman hadn't a cent of change in his pocket.

The traveler was bound to cross, but refused to pay three times as much as the man who passed before him or the one who was to come next. The ferryman would not wet an oar unless payment for his services was assured. Here was ample foundation for an argument, and presumably the opportunity was not neglected. But a satisfactory arrangement was finally reached, the traveler getting value received for his coonskin by being waited three across the stream. This of course would leave him on the right side, and neither party to the trade would have cause for complaint. Such was the generous spirit of accommodation which obtained in these earlier days, such—but hold on a bit.

On the second trip the ferryman chanced to inspect the coonskin closely and found that it was by no means up to the recognized standard. Maybe it had been killed too early in the season or was not properly stretched. Anyway, he decided that four bits was all it was worth, and the traveler frankly admitted the soundness of his judgment, acknowledged that he had received its value in the double ferryage and forthwith started on his fifty mile ride up the river to the nearest point where it was fordable.—Field and Stream.
