The National Game.

The Yaquina and Newport baseball teams met on the Newport diamond Sunday and when the 9 innings had been fought out the score stood, Yaquina 13, Newport 11.

It was a fierce struggle. Yaquina's left and center fielders and second baseman are boys under 16 years of age, but they fielded their positions well. Scott, Yaquina's right fielder, also pulled down a difficult fly. Hoeflein and Albine carried off the batting honors for Yaquina. Pruett also hit the ball a terrific smash and it rolled almost to the pitcher. The center fielder has an artificial leg, but the poke netted him two bases. The entire Yaquina team put up good ball, this being their second victory over the Resort City boys. The closeness of the score also proves that the Newporters were going some, but they were slightly outclassed. The teams lined up as follows:

YAQUINA	NEWPORT
Reeder (captain)..... c	Bradshaw
Albine..... p	Schroeder
Foster..... ss	Culver
Hassman..... lb	Fry
A. Toner..... 2b	(captain) Flowers
Hoeflein (manager)..... sb	Briggs
Casteel..... lf	Boyle
Pruett..... cf	Greenbrook
Cott..... rf	(manager) Hyerley

The first game of the season was played Sunday in Toledo between the Tigers and the Married Men, resulting in a score of 20 to 17 in favor of the latter. One of the Tigers was a married man and several of the Married Men were not married, but that didn't appear to make any difference. None of the players were in practice, but the game was interesting from start to finish. The young ladies present rooted hard for the Tigers, but the hoodoo was on the latter and wouldn't be chased by pretty girls.

None of the players were killed, but some of them carried away marks of the contest. Frank Parker, one of the Married Men who isn't married, caught one of Bryan's inshoots on his temple and was rendered hors de combat for several minutes. Van Cleve, Crosno and Franklin carried home some pretty badly banged up fingers, but will soon be ready for another game.

One of the exciting features was when Ben Jones, the Married Men's best base runner, was put out by one of Van Cleve's famous drops. The Tigers evidently figured on putting their opponent's best men out of action as soon as possible.

The line-up was as follows:

TIGERS	MARRIED MEN
Smsel, c.....	Block, c
C. Ofstedahl, 1b.....	J. Brown, p
A. Bryan, ss and p.....	J. E. Franklin, 1b
R. VanCleve, p and ss.....	B. F. Jones, 2b
Howell, 2b.....	Avery, cf
F. Jones, 3b.....	C. K. Crosno, ss
W. Hoeflein, cf.....	McElwain, 3b
O. Ofstedahl, rf.....	Carson, 3b
Powell, lf.....	Parker, rf

SCORE BY INNINGS.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total

Sheriff Ross and daughter, Miss Ethel, went to Salem last Saturday, where Miss Ethel will take a special course at the Capital Business College. Those who are familiar with the young lady's practically faultless work are inclined to believe she has but little to learn in her chosen profession.

Al Bradley of Fruitvale went out to Albany Monday to meet his wife, who has been visiting at the home of her parents in Clackamas county for some time, while receiving medical treatment. Mrs. Bradley has been ill for several months, but recently has been improving rapidly and expects soon to be in perfect health.

George K. Freeman, recently of Portland, has an ad on another page. Mr. Freeman is a skillful painter, paper-hanger and decorator, and has already done some nice work for some of our citizens. Just before coming to Toledo he did the interior finishing on the Oregon building on the Lewis and Clark Fair grounds. Try him if you happen to need anything in his line.

A number of Toledo's bright and handsome young people gathered on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hoeflein in honor of the 17th birthday of Willie Franklin. Miss Bertha Hoeflein and her brother Willie filled the important offices of hostess and host, and a very enjoyable time resulted. An abundance of delicious ice cream, with the customary trimmings, constituted the chief attraction. The guest of honor escaped the birthday accompaniment which is generally played by all hands.

More Eastern Oysters.

A carload of young oysters from Old Point Comfort, Va., passed through Toledo Monday evening for Yaquina, consigned to Dr. M. M. Davis and William Toner, who will truck them carefully away in their little beds in Yaquina Bay. They will be carefully nursed and guarded until they reach the size which places them in the list of table luxuries. The rapid growth of eastern oysters planted in Yaquina Bay several years ago leaves no doubt that these will also thrive in their new home. The shipment was secured through the federal government and consists of 170 barrels, each containing about 15,000 oysters.

Lincoln County Trout.

In a single day at Elk City recently nearly 900 trout from eight to fifteen inches in length were taken in the Yaquina and Elk rivers, within a radius of three miles of the town. Marsh Simpson headed the list with a catch of 56, a boy of 14, resident of the place, was next with 52, while a party of Corvallisites, over there for the day captured 75.—Corvallis Times.

One on "Russ."

J. R. Wyatt Wednesday morning was making preparations to go on a fishing trip to Lincoln county streams when he discovered that his outfit of flies, selected by him with the greatest of care and at considerable expense last year had disappeared, and his feelings can best be imagined by an enthusiastic fisherman who has suffered a similar loss. Some one of his friends had evidently borrowed the flies and made good use of them and they will doubtless be returned in time. But in the meantime, Mr. Wyatt will either refrain from fishing or secure a new supply of fishing paraphernalia.—Albany Herald.

Hurry, Please.

The time for rounding up the material for Lincoln county's exhibit has arrived. A part of the same has been collected, but it is desired to secure the remainder for the initial display at once. All our citizens who have kindly volunteered to assist, and all others who may have something suitable for the exhibit are urged to send it in at once. If near the railroad, place it on the train at your station billed to C. F. Soule, Toledo. A few more samples of choice wool and mohair will be appreciated. As the season advances the committee will make arrangements to handle the berries and other fruit. Here is a chance for our horticulturists to make records.

J. P. Wetherholt of Fort Stevens spent several days last week with his uncle, Al Waugh, who gave him a few exhibitions of catching trout. Mr. Wetherholt returned Monday.

Al Hall returned Monday evening from Albany, where for nearly six weeks he was treated for cancer by Dr. Akin. There seems to be no doubt that the cancerous growth has been entirely removed and Al is feeling appropriately happy—a feeling which is shared by his numerous friends.

The hunters' license law will go into effect May 18; after which time it will be unlawful for any person to hunt on grounds not his own unless he has secured a license and paid a fee of $1. Violation of the law is punishable by a fine of $25 to $100 or imprisonment five to thirty days.

Mrs. Fish's millinery opening last Saturday attracted a large number of ladies and the great annual event was thoroughly appreciated. Hats of all shapes, shades and sizes were on display and every one, of course, was "just perfectly lovely." The show room was tastefully decorated for the occasion and Mrs. Fish's effort to supply the demand for beautiful and becoming head-gear and other feminine fixtures was voted a success.

After May 18 all butter produced and sold in Oregon must bear a mark designating it as Oregon butter. This is required by a law passed by the last legislature and is intended to protect buyers from being sold inferior Eastern butter falsely branded Oregon butter. To sell butter made in other states under the representation that it is Oregon butter will be unlawful in the future. A similar law has been passed in Washington. It has been determined that Oregon butter should have the word "Oregon" placed on the wrapper, while beneath will be the words "State Brand."

Yaquina Salmon Eggs.

The Yaquina hatchery at Elk City shipped a large number of salmon eggs last Friday to Portland, where they will be used at the Lewis and Clark Fair in connection with the fisheries exhibit. They will be kept in cold storage until the fair opens, and will then be taken out as they are needed for the exhibit. From these eggs the visitors will be given an opportunity to see the embryo fish develop into a small salmon.

The hatchery at Elk City, from which these eggs were shipped, is doing great work this year. In years past the expense of this hatchery has been very large and it was considered a losing investment. This year, however, its productiveness is so great that it is counted among the best hatcheries in the state.

Wygant at San Juan.

Col. Wygant, Twenty-second Infantry, U. S. A., who is the commanding officer aboard the U. S. Army transport Thomas, en route to Manila, was one of the officers of the famous Twenty-fourth (colored) U. S. Infantry, which made brilliant history in its charge up San Juan Hill, Cuba. Colonel, then Captain Wygant, was just behind Captain, now Lieut. Colonel, Ducat, when the latter officer received three bullet wounds, one penetrating his thighs.

That same bullet, had not Ducat received it, would undoubtedly have killed Col. Wygant. The Twenty-fourth lost more officers, wounded and killed, than any other regiment participating in the engagement.—Pacific Commercial Advertiser, Honolulu, H. T.

Colonel Wygant is a brother of our fellow citizen, County Surveyor Wygant.

J. L. HYDE, County Treasurer.

Dated at Toledo, Or., this 15th day of April, 1905.

Little argument is needed to support the assertion, made a few days ago by the Oregon Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. H. Ackerman, that the Oregon system of state uniformity in the selection of public-school text-books is better than the Washington system of county uniformity. In Oregon the same books are used throughout the state. In Washington each county selects its own books. Families frequently move from one county to another; also teachers. In such cases the value of the uniform system is apparent, for the child or the teacher finds in the new county the same books he used in his former place of abode; besides, the courses of study are the same, and there is no waste of time in getting in touch with new surroundings. An Oregon teacher may feel at home in any school in the state.—Oregonian.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the M. E. parsonage with Mrs. C. M. Bryan next Tuesday afternoon.
