Hon. B. L. Eddy of Tillamook is slated for the registership of the Roseburg Land Office-so it is a little more than rumored. Mr. Eddy is one of Oregon's few big men who has not been indicted, and he can undoubtedly fill the office to the satisfaction of all concerned. We are at a loss, however, for for a reason why a big legal light like Mr. Eddy should desire such a small

William Jennings Bryan will soon start out on a grand tour of the world. Many men have done this for the purpose of absorbing ideas, broadening their minds and acquiring the very desirable and helpful polish. In this case the motive is supposed to be re-

An aged Corvallis citizen went over to Albany to get drunk, blew in all his money and lost his railroad ticket. When Corvallis went dry and forced its booze fighters to go to some other town for red "licker," it perpetrated a great injustice-so the booze fighters think.

The Senator's Sentiments.

"I have been trying to get the press of the state to appreciate the danger to the state's future through the forest reserve policy of the government, but it has seemed a difficult thing to have them arrive at a realization of what it means to the state."

Thus spoke United States Senator Charles W. Fulton in the Statesman office Saturday.

"I fought the proposition in Congress last year and shall continue to do so as long as I am in the Senate from Oregon. As the matter stands now, one-fifth of the lands in the state of Oregon are tied up so that they will do no good to the state nor permit of development. I consider the action of the government as an outrage, and that the people of Oregon should protest energetically against it must soon be evident to

"How about the proposed reduction of the tariff?" was asked.

"I am opposed to that and think all the Pacific Coast states should unite and fight the proposal. The people of Oregon are interested in the protective tariff and demand its maintenance. Wool men and agriculturists and manufacturers are all united in interest in this matter, and it will not be an easy matter to secure revision of the tariff."

"I am afraid," said he, "that this agitation may result like the silver agitation in the democratic party did, in a disruption of the party temporarily. It can be temporarily only, however, for the republican party cannot get away from the tariff."

cenator Fuiton said he was not surprised at the removal of Mr. Matthews, for the President had previously said that, if Mr. Heney asked for changes in the personnel of the court during the land fraud trials, that he would have to consider his requests as only in this manner could be give the prosecutor a free rein for an unhampered prosecution of the cases,

"The appointment of Mr. Reed is only temporary, however," added Mr. cheerfully recommend it as the best Fulton, - Salem Statesman.

The Editor's Needs.

"The delights of globe trotting are many and varied," says Mr. Burton Holmes, the well known author, lecturer and traveler, in the Saturday Evening Post, "but perhaps the most amusing five minutes of my last year's wanderings were passed on the Pacific coast early last winter. I stopped for lunch in a small town in California and picked up a paper from a North Dakota town which contained the following editorial paragraph:

" It is reported that one of the fastidious newly-married ladies of Harvey, North Dakota, kneads bread with her gloves on The incident may be somewhat peculiar, but perhaps there are others. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on; he needs bread with his shirt on; he needs bread with his pants on, and unless some of the delinquent subscribers of this "Old Rag of Freedom" pay up before long, he will need bread without a d-n thing on -and North Dakota is no Gar- to a dauce decollette, and unconsciously Liver Tablets to correct it. If you den of Eden in wintertime.'
