Chittim Time.

Now 'tis busy chittim time,
To the woods we'll hie away
And those graceful trees will climb
And their bark cut all away.
What a merry, merry time!
'Tis a picnic lasting long:
First down hill, then up we climb,
With a rippling laugh and song;
Watching birds in leafy tree;
Syinge eust, half-hid nest;
Busy as the birds all day,
Never stopping for a rest,
Hark! the welcome dinner call!
Now a noisy, happy race
Over logs and through the brush—
Nothing stops our onward pace.
Hands and face a darker hue
Than were ever known before;
All so hungry—how'd we know
Water is so very near?
Bread and butter—rarest kind—
Ne'er before was half so good,
Such big appetites we find
Running, climbing through the wood.
Soon the happy day is done:
Low the sun sinks in the west;
And with limbs and body tired
Seek we all night's kindly rest.
List! what noise is that we hear?
Can it be old Bruin's growl?
Or the hungry panther wild?
Or, perchance, 'twas just an owl.
Soon upon our humble cot
Slumber drives all fear away,
And, locked deep in her embrace,
We remain till dawn of day.
Thus we pass from day to day:
Soon the pleasure has grown old;
Now we simply chittim peel
For the silver and the gold.
When will chittim time be o'er?
Pleads the anxious boy and girl.
I was ne'er so tired before
And my head is all awirl.
Soon is heard the welcome news:
We will break up camp today,
Down our tent and pack it well,
Then for home we'll speed away.
Was there ever happier hearts
Than that drove from camp away?
Was there ever sweeter home
Than we entered that glad day?

Cured Old Sores.

Westmoreland, Kans., May 5, 1902.
Baird Snow Liniment Co.: Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophia J. Carson, Allensville, Millin county, Pa., has a sore and mistrusts that it is a cancer. Please send her a 50c bottle. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

Here's a Good One.

With the June number will begin the Pacific Monthly's series of special editions for the year 1905. They will comprise a number for Portland, for Seattle, for Southern California, for San Francisco and the souvenir number of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, also a special automobile number. The articles of Dr. Wolf von Schierbrand, six in number, on "The Coming Supremacy of the Pacific" are also promised, and the plans contemplated by the publishers will, without question, place the Pacific Monthly far in advance, not only of present competitors, but also into the unreachably class of periodical literature on the Pacific Coast. The Pacific Monthly is sold to regular subscribers at the extremely low price of $1 per year. We have made an arrangement with the publishers by which we are able to offer it in connection with THE LEADER (both publications) for $1.50 a year.
