Colonel J. Henry Penn was a visitor from Yaquina Wednesday.

Mrs. D. P. Blue of Gold Hill was visiting friends and transacting business in the city yesterday.

Round trip tickets from Toledo to the Fair, good for 30 days, $6.85 via Corvallis, $7.25 via Albany.

Dan Harley came in Monday from Albany, where he is running a boarding house, for a visit with his folks.

The Toledo Creamery paid to farmers of this locality for cream during the month of June over $1500—not a small item. Several creameries of this capacity should be doing business in the county.

A team composed of Toledo and Corvallis ball players had a contest with the Siletz team Sunday on the local grounds. The Toledo-Corvallis team won by a score of 20 to 9. Simpson pitched for Toledo, as usual, but his receiver was Chambers, the crack little Corvallis player. They made a fine battery. The Siletz boys' battery was not in the best kind of working order. A large crowd witnessed the game. And it was Sunday.

County Judge Brown came home Monday to attend the adjourned session of Commissioners' Court, returning to Portland Wednesday. He reports that the Fair is improving steadily in all incomplete features, including the Lincoln county exhibit. Bob Warnock of Eddyville contributed some fine grasses this week and Adam Rae of Elk City sent Phenomenal berries and vegetables. There are still a large number of promises on the list. Next!

W. R. C. Social.

The social given at Woodmen Hall Tuesday night by Abe Lincoln Woman's Relief Corps No. 49 was patronized to the extent of only a little more than one-half the refreshments prepared for the occasion, but it was a pleasant affair, just the same. The ladies disposed of the unsold ice cream next day.

Otto Krogstad's phonograph figured in the brief musical program, there being also a couple of choice vocal selections.

Samuel Center's rendition of "Robert Emmet's Plea" was a finished bit of dramatic work, of which the audience showed a warm appreciation.

Otto Krogstad read a prize poem which touched the funny bone of the audience, although it didn't seem to stamper the boys very hard in the direction of the ice cream, which was evidently its design.

The fascinating and polished games of "Pit" and "Bingo" served as time-killers for awhile. The former is highly endorsed by way-up medical men and will undoubtedly become popular in Toledo.

The proceeds of the social go to swell the Cottage fund of the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg.

Unfinished Business.

At the hour of going to press the grand jury had not completed its work. However, a straight tip has been received from Albany and Corvallis that the jury has decided that the accused in the Sharratt murder case are not guilty. The jury is expected to report within a few hours—perhaps sooner.

The jury hung in the Gust Olson Swiping case and it (the case) will be put in cold storage until next term of circuit court.

H. W. Vincent went to Portland today to take charge of the Lincoln county booth at the Fair. Judge Brown and family will return to Toledo next week.

The newspapers of Portland, Albany, Salem and Corvallis have been busy this week trying the Sharratt murder case and they all seem to be of one opinion—namely, that the defendants are just about the nicest persons on earth and very innocent. One report sent to the Oregonian from Toledo, stating that "the examining magistrate" (W. R. Wakefield) informed the grand jury, by letter, that he also believed the defendants to be innocent, but he committed them just because—or words to that effect. Just how this correspondent learned this is not known. The defendants' attorneys may possibly know something about it, but there is no law compelling them to squeal on themselves.

Sham Battle at the Fair.

What promises to be the most realistic sham battle in the annals of mimic warfare is scheduled to take place at the Lewis and Clark Exposition July 21, constituting the crowning feature of three days of military maneuvers in which at least 1500 troops of the Oregon National Guard will take part. The battle will be made realistic by the shooting of cannon and small arms loaded with blank cartridges, and is expected to prove one of the most popular of the many features which have been arranged to make every day until the close of the Exposition, October 16, a special day.

Adjutant-General W. E. Finzer, in conference with President H. W. Goode of the Exposition, has arranged the more important details. The guard will go into camp at Gearhart Park on July 13, remaining there six days and then proceeding to Portland. During the first two days of the encampment at the Exposition, there will be a dress parade each day, and a grand review in honor of Governor Chamberlain and staff. A number of competitive drills also will be held.

The battle proper will be between two detachments, one wearing the brown khaki uniform and the other the blue. The browns will entrench themselves on the hillside directly west of the Exposition grounds and await the approach of the attacking party of blues. The field artillery will supplement the entrenched force, while the cavalry will assist the attacking party, operating from the rear or flank. The details of the attack and the defense will be left to the commanders of the opposing forces, as strategy will count in determining which side is the victor.

The attack is scheduled to take place at sundown on July 21, and the engagement is expected to last about two hours. The hillside where the browns will be entrenched reaches down to Guild's Lake, the surpassing water feature of the Exposition, and the entire maneuvers may be watched from the Bridge of Nations, which spans the lake and connects the mainland with the peninsula on which the United States Government buildings are situated.

Bids Wanted.

Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Directors of School District No. 2 till 12 o'clock, noon, of Saturday July 22, 1905, for raising and repairing the schoolhouse in said district. Plans and specifications of said work may be seen at the office of the clerk, C. E. Hawkins, Toledo, Oregon. Bonds to double the amount of the bid will be required of the successful bidder. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.
