When you want a pleasant laxative that is easy to take and certain to act, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

CHILD NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE FROM ONE HOUR TO ANOTHER, BUT CURED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Good for Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done me a great deal of good," says C. Towns of Rat Portage, Ontario, Canada. "Being a mild physic the after effects are not unpleasant, and I can recommend them to all who suffer from stomach disorder." For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Indigestion.

With its companions, heartburn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

A PECULIAR MAN.

His Name Was Lazarus, and He Had a Peculiar Experience.

"In one of my voyages from Cape Town to England," writes a traveler, "I shared my cabin with a peculiar man, whose name was Lazarus. He made me promise that if he should die during the voyage I would prevent his burial at sea. He said that on a previous voyage he had fallen sick and was taken for dead and put into a sack for burial. A quartermaster had been put on to watch the body until it was time for the funeral. When the burial party arrived the quartermaster informed the captain that he thought the body had moved in the sack. The sack was opened, and Lazarus eventually came to life again. Such was the story Lazarus told me. Lazarus was a thin man with a sallow face. He had an enormous appetite and appeared at every meal, to which he devoted his whole energies. The good feeding only seemed to add to his corpse-like appearance. One evening, sure enough, when we were about halfway to our voyage's end, he apparently died again. The doctors took him in charge this time, however, and he came out of his trance without any shotted sack episode. He was met at the London docks by a number of relatives and friends, all of whom looked as if they might be suffering from the same complaint."

Belgium as a Lace Center.

Belgium has long been an important center of the lace industry.

The art of making lace spread through Flanders from France and Italy in the middle centuries owing to the splendid qualities of Belgian flax, and it was there that the wonderful duchesse lace was originated. Much of the so called Spanish lace—black, with its large roses and trailing design—was also made in Flanders, and for the last hundred years the cities of Bruges, Ghent and Ypres have put on the market the three best grades of the modern valenciennes lace, each city having a distinct variation in design due to the differences in workmanship gradually introduced in the course of years in the three localities.

He Won Easily.

Mr. Subbubs—You know you're only talking nonsense. What do you want a couple of new gowns for? Mrs. Subbubs—Why, Mrs. Playne has got a dozen gowns, all of them much handsomer than the two or three that I've got. Mr. Subbubs—Yes, I know. But a homely woman like that needs rich attire in order to attract attention from her face. You don't.—Liverpool Mercury.

Indignation.

"Say, boss," began the beggar, "I'm outer work an'—"
"See here," interrupted Goodart, "I gave you 50 cents last week."
"Well, yer've earned more since, ain't yer?"—Exchange.

Not His Privilege.

Employer (to presumptuous clerk)—Are you the boss here, I'd like to know? Clerk—No, sir, but—Employer—Well, don't talk like a fool then.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

Cheerfully Recommended for Rheumatism.

O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes, Dec. 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for four months with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Lintment; one bottle cured me. I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affliction." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

Here's a Good One.

With the June number will begin the Pacific Monthly's series of special editions for the year 1905. They will comprise a number for Portland, for Seattle, for Southern California, for San Francisco and the souvenir number of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, also a special automobile number. The articles of Dr. Wolf von Schierbrand, six in number, on "The Coming Supremacy of the Pacific" are also promised, and the plans contemplated by the publishers will, without question, place the Pacific Monthly far in advance, not only of present competitors, but also into the unreachably class of periodical literature on the Pacific Coast. The Pacific Monthly is sold to regular subscribers at the extremely low price of $1 per year. We have made an arrangement with the publishers by which we are able to offer it in connection with THE LEADER (both publications) for $1.50 a year.
