The Summer of Our Discontent.
Summer weather makes me weary!
I should like to join Peary
In that far-off frozen region near the pole.
There an iceberg cool bestriding
I'd contentedly be riding
While in melting words the Northland I'd extol.

But I'm anchored to this section,
And I guess, upon reflection,
I would better sound the slogan "All is well!"
For while here I am sojourning
I'm real thankful I'm not burning
As they do in places like, for instance—Nebraska!

Merely Meddling.

In some half dozen or more states of this great and glorious nation are organizations of women "Opposed to the Further Extension of Suffrage to Women." They are very busy, and fire literature at the public in general and the easy press in particular, without money and without price. In our humble opinion, these excellent women are wasting a great deal of valuable time—not to say butting in. If they do not desire the blessed privilege of voting, that is their business. No law can be enacted which will compel them to vote. On the other hand, if other women, just as good as themselves, desire the privilege of voting, they should not be molested by this women's auxiliary of the male organizations whose members are swell-headed enough to consider themselves alone fit to rule the human roost. The LEADER is still willing to let the dear girls do as they darn please.

A solid cake of natural soda, weighing half a ton, which was mined in Albany county, Wyoming, is on exhibition in Wyoming's section in the Mines and Metallurgy building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The cake of soda resembles in appearance an immense block of ice. Soda is found in Wyoming, notably in Carbon, Natrona and Albany counties, in deposits varying in size from a few acres to one hundred acres and in depth from a few inches to sixteen feet.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels, give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

A Shocking Confession.

Benedict is a New Haven man who has been eight times the father of a bouncing bouncer. In the outskirts of the university city is a little town among the hills named Prospect, and last year four of the children were sent there for the summer.

One day Benedict and his wife entertained at dinner a new acquaintance, Professor B. The Professor is a bachelor, and, like many scholarly men, rather ill at ease in society.

"What a fine little family of children you have," he began with an admiring glance at the four stay-at-homes.

"Yes, indeed," replied Benedict proudly, "and we have four more in Prospect."

The Professor blushed his astonishment.—August Lippincott's.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, proprietor Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

Popular and Picturesque.

The only thing necessary to make the Denver and Rio Grande the most popular, as it has ever been known the most pleasant and most picturesque way to cross the continent, has come about. This is the establishment of through sleeping car service.

In connection with the O. R. & N. a through Pullman Standard Sleeper is now run from Portland to Denver, leaving Portland at 8:15 p. m. arriving at Salt Lake at 8:40 a. m. the second morning, leaving Salt Lake at 3:50 p. m. and arriving at Denver 4:20 p. m. the following day. This schedule gives passengers seven hours stop over in Salt Lake, affording an opportunity to visit the Mormon Capital as well as a day light ride through the grandest scenery in the world.

For reservations in this car and for illustrated booklets picturing the scenery contiguous to the Denver & Rio Grande, proving it to be the "Scenic Line of the World," write to W. C. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third street, Portland.

Herbine

Renders the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion.

and the over-indulgence in food and drink. Herbine acts quickly; a dose after meals will bring the patient into a good condition in a few days.

G. L. Caldwell, Agent M. K. & T. R. R. Checotah, Ind. Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well. 50c. Sold by O. O. Krogstad."

For Sale.
