Number 30

A Success.

The young ladies of Toledo treated the public to an entertainment and chicken-pie supper Tuesday night which was a delightful success. The net proceeds were $24.65, which was applied on the salary of the pastor of the M. E. church.

The program as given in these columns last week was presented with the exception of one or two numbers and was excellent.

In addition to the choice instrumental numbers were a song by the Ladies' Glee Club and a vocal solo by Miss Verna Ross which caused the audience to call for more of the same. A clever sketch, with telephone accompaniment, was given by Mrs. Mabel McClure, and the pantomime, "Bess and Three Lovers," convinced the audience that the young people implicated in the mixup were not without experience.

The young ladies in charge of this affair have thoroughly demonstrated their ability in this branch of the church work, and their future efforts will certainly be appreciated.

Later—the committee in charge of the social desires to publish the following statement of receipts and expenditures:

Total receipts, $30.20.
Expenses—Bread, 25 cents; cream, 50 cents; celery, 50 cents; chicken, 30 cents; hall rent, $4; total expense, $5.55. Balance applied on pastor's salary, $24.65.

After another visit to the Fair, they departed Wednesday for their home in Nebraska, accompanied by C. J. Hosford, our Nebraska uncle. They're in love with Lincoln county and have been duly registered as prospective citizens.

Wiley Parrish and assistants have completed two of the three fills at the bridges out on the Newport road and are getting along as rapidly as possible with the third, but have been considerably delayed by passing teams—so much, in fact, that it has been necessary to close that part of the road until the work is completed. While they drive around by the upper road requires a little more time, via a rather stiff grade, the fill, without further interruption, will be completed next week. These fills are a valuable improvement, at a minimum cost, and will be appreciated by all who have occasion to drive over the road.

After four years in the service of Uncle Sam as musician on the battleship Wisconsin, Shed Rosebrook arrived in Toledo Wednesday evening and is now enjoying himself at home. While Shed does not underestimate the value of his experience in the navy, he has had enough of it and will hereafter make music on terra firma. He will remain in Toledo this winter, but a position awaits him next spring in the famous Park Band of San Francisco. Shed brought back many curios and beautiful articles manufactured by the skillful Orientals, the Wisconsin having been in these waters during the past three years.

No More Excursions

on the C. & E. The Sunday excursions on the C. & E. have been discontinued, and no more will run this season; but three-day rates, good going on Saturday and returning Monday, will be continued on the S. P. until September 30, and on the C. & E. until October 14. Season tickets from all S. P. and C. & E. points will be sold daily until September 30.

Excellent sport is now to be had on Yaquina Bay trolling for salmon, which are running freely. September is the best month to enjoy the ocean—calm, warm and beautiful. All should take advantage of the excursion rates which will soon be withdrawn.

Home Again.

After a very rough experience in the wilds of Josephine county, with which many of our readers are now familiar, Ade Crosno reached home Monday evening, accompanied by his father and Dr. S. S. Thayer.

Ade was out prospecting with Al Reed, about fifteen miles from Kerby, and when alone, a couple of miles from camp, lost his bearings on account of the dense smoke which enveloped the country for miles. His only food for thirteen days consisted of wild berries, but he was generally able to connect with water. One day, while climbing out of a rocky gorge, he slipped and fell a distance of about thirty feet, sustaining several severe cuts and bruises and being rendered unconscious for some time. After enduring all the hardships that would naturally accompany an experience of that kind, the atmosphere was cleared by rain. Although wet, chilled and suffering from the effects of his fall, Ade was able to make his way to a habitation on the Illinois river. A few days' rest, with regular square meals, put him in condition to make the trip home. He is rapidly regaining flesh and strength and will soon be ready for a little more of the strenuous life in the mountains. He says Lincoln county is a level country compared with the region in which he had the time of his life.

Postponed.

The Toledo school board announces that the opening day of the fall and winter term of the local schools has been postponed from Monday, September 25, to Monday October 2.

Musical Dave.

Island visitors are having a rare treat nightly in the concerts by the Catalina Island Marine band. For the number of performers it is difficult to believe better music is produced in the West, and programs are arranged to please all, from the most cultivated, who enjoy the best composers, to those who care only for the bright, catchy work of modern writers.

The solo work by real artists is a feature in the band this season. D. C. Rosebrook is making a great hit with his audiences, and his popularity is well deserved. In only one direction is his popularity questioned. When Mr. Rosebrook strikes pedal F, away down in the sub-cellar, the men behind the big horns who think they should have a monopoly on such notes, can be seen to turn green with envy.

Another phenomenal note is his high G, which rings clear as a bell. When not with the island band Mr. Rosebrook occupies the position of assistant director of the celebrated Park Band of San Francisco.—Los Angeles Times.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Penn of Yaquina went to Portland Wednesday to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Devereaux. They will also see the Fair again.

Miss Edith Harrison of Beaver Creek passed through this morning en route to Druse, in eastern Oregon, where she is again employed as teacher in the public schools.

"Yes," remarked the country merchant to the newspaper reporter, "I have a snap. The wholesale houses sends me duns every month and draws on me at sight, but if I send a bill to a farmer he comes in swearing mad and quits trading at my store. While I am hard up for ready money many of those who owe me are sending cash in advance to mail order houses. If I contribute money to any cause people say I am bidding for trade; if I don't they say I am a hog. Every day I am expected to dig up for everything that comes along from a raffle ticket to a church fund by people who say I ought to do this because they do part of their trading here. But my friend, Montgomery Ward neither buys raffle tickets nor help the church fund, and yet he gets the cash in advance business and if I were to circulate a subscription paper among the sale houses where we trade I would get the horse laugh proper. If I sell a pair of pants I must treat the family to candy and cigars, if I buy a load of potatoes I must do the same thing. Customers who are able to pay hang onto their money while I pay ten per cent at the bank to get ready cash. I have a big business during hard times and poor crops from people who are willing to trade with me provided I can duplicate catalogue house prices and wait until after their harvest for my money. My scales weigh too heavy when I sell sugar and too light when I buy butter. I am a thief, a liar and a grafter. If I smile I am a softsoapy hypocrite, if I don't I am a grump. Yes, this is certainly a snap." And then he looked over $10,000 worth of book accounts, all good and wondered how he could raise $350 to pay a sight draft due tomorrow.—Stolen.

Portland Day at the Fair.

September 30 will be the biggest day of the entire Lewis and Clark Exposition. The people of the home city, and a great many from nearby towns as well, will turn out in great numbers on that day, and it is expected that the attendance will break all records, exceeding even that of the Fourth of July, when the turnstiles registered 53,708 visitors.

September 30 is regarded as an especially fitting date for the big celebration, following, as it does, immediately upon the close of the show, which will be held from the 19th to 29th inclusive.

A majority of the stores and other business houses of Portland will close for the day, in order to give their employees an opportunity to attend the celebration. There will be no formal exercises, but the day will be made one of general merrymaking. Every visitor will be presented with a coupon which will entitle him to a chance for a valuable prize. In the evening there will be the biggest display of fireworks ever shown in the West.

The day of the home city at an exposition always has been its best day. At Chicago the enormous attendance of 761,942 was rolled up. At St. Louis it was 404,450; at Buffalo, 162,424, and at Omaha, 98,845. While each of these cities exceeds in population that of the Exposition city of 1905, it is predicted that the attendance on Portland day will reach 60,000, while some estimates even place it at 100,000.
