Popular and Picturesque.

The only thing necessary to make the Denver and Rio Grande the most popular, as it has ever been known the most pleasant and most picturesque way to cross the continent, has come about. This is the establishment of through sleeping car service.

In connection with the O. R. & N. a through Pullman Standard Sleeper is now run from Portland to Denver, leaving Portland at 8:15 p. m. arriving at Salt Lake at 8:40 a. m. the second morning, leaving Salt Lake at 3:50 p. m. and arriving at Denver 4:20 p. m. the following day. This schedule gives passengers seven hours stop over in Salt Lake, affording an opportunity to visit the Mormon Capital as well as a day light ride through the grandest scenery in the world.

For reservations in this car and for illustrated booklets picturing the scenery contiguous to the Denver & Rio Grande, proving it to be the "Scenic Line of the World," write to W. C. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third street, Portland.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this time of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is through, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by O. O. Krogestad.

The editor of an exchange tells this story of himself: He was hurrying around a corner one night recently, when he bumped into a lady who was running without orders on the main line. There was a fearful collision. The editor received a sprained knee in the mixup and before the debris could be cleared up he attempted to rub his injured propeller when by mistake he rubbed the wrong knee. A black eye was added to the wreck.

Saved His Life.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by O. O. Krogestad.

You can always tell a young husband from an old one by the way he works in the garden. Three months married, he digs, whistles, smiles and casts covert glances at the house as though some one was looking at him through the window. One year married he smiles at turns and seems annoyed at breakfast being late. Two years married, he digs a little, looks sour and glum, kicks the cat and dog and looks toward the house as though he would like to choke somebody. Three years married he sits on the step and smokes, while his wife does the digging.

Insomnia, Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tuilamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by O. O. Krogestad.

Doings at Nortons.

School opened October 2 with an enrollment of nine pupils. Miss M. L. Hampton of Rocca is teacher.

Andrew Porter returned from Portland September 30.

Howard Ebert, wife and daughter, Josie, of Ellensburg, Wash., are visiting with A. L. and H. S. Porter.

Alex Warnock and family brought some new furniture home with them from Portland.

Dan Warnock and wife, who were visiting his brothers here have returned to their home.

The Nortons Sunday school was re-organized October 8. The officers are Miss Hampton, superintendent; Mrs. N. F. Edwards, assistant superintendent; Miss Ethel Edwards, secretary.

In the dead of night recently a woman telephoned to the mayor of a neighboring city that a man was running about his house decidedly short of wearing apparel. She wanted to know what could be done about it. The mayor told her he thought the best thing would be not to look. It appears that the man's wife was taken sick in the night and he was rushing around to find restoratives before adjusting his necktie.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or an adult, and if for a child they invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by O. O. Krogestad.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 N. Main St., Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got for her a bottle of Horehound Symp. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stops it, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by O. O. Krogestad.
