WINTER RATES TO YAQUINA BAY Oregon's Great Recreation and Health Resort at the Newport Beaches.

As a winter health and recreation resort Newport is the one par excellence. Recognizing this, and wishing to give the people an opportunity to breathe the fresh, pure ozone of the ocean, the Southern Pacific and Corvallis & Eastern railroads will resume the sale of tickets through to Yaquina bay on Saturday, October 21, and will sell same throughout the winter and spring on every

WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY.

The rates will be the same as during the summer and will be good for return 30 days from date of sale.

DR. MINTHORN'S SANITARY SEA BATHS will be in operation during the entire winter, and treatments will be given daily. Hot and cold salt water baths can be taken every day in the sanitarium, and for anyone desiring rest, recreation and health, no place on the Pacific Northwest can be found equal to Yaquina bay.

OTHER HEALTH RESORTS CLOSED.

During the winter nearly all other health resorts are closed or difficult to reach, and none of them have the advantages of Newport and vicinity as regard climate, points of interest, recreation and amusement. For parties desiring to enjoy fishing, hunting or seeing the ocean in sunshine and storm this famous resort is unequalled. The surroundings are ideal—beautiful scenery, climate mild, healthful and invigorating.

COTTAGE TO RENT CHEAP.

Neat, clean cottages, either furnished or partly so, can be rented in the immediate neighborhood of the sanitary baths at about $5 per month. Plenty of fresh milk, vegetables, honey, fruit and all household necessities can be obtained at the lowest possible cost, while all kinds of fish and the famous rock oysters can be had in abundance for the trouble of securing them.

People troubled with loss of appetite, insomnia, rheumatism or run down from any cause will find Newport an ideal place to regain their health and vigor, or for rest and pleasure.

Full information as to rates, checking of baggage, etc., can be obtained from any S. P. or C. & E. agent, or from A. L. Craig, general passenger agent S. P. Co., Portland; of J. C. Mayo, general passenger agent C. & E. Albany, Oregon.

Rate from Albany, Corvallis and Philomath, $3.50.

For any disease of the skin we can recommend Chamberlain's Salve. It relieves the itching and burning sensation instantly and soon effects a cure. This salve is also invaluable for sore nipples. O. O. KROGSTAD

Fall Creek Items.

R. B. Trenholm and wife have gone to the Valley for a visit with relatives and friends.

A. J. Oglesby has now got the telephone line up to his house and has a 'phone, so he is all right; if it rains, he can talk to his neighbors.

Carlo Minotti is doing some work in his prune orchard.

Billy Oglesby is going to Gray's Harbor, Wash., to work in a sawmill.

R. B. Ward says he is going to vote the Republican ticket straight in June. Hurrah for Bennie!

Fall Creek was blessed last week with book agents.

Charley Ball and Frank Klecher were last seen going toward the salt chuck. Wish them good luck.

C. E. Caras lost one of his fine work steers.

The bachelors here now are very few in number. Those left are going to live in hope, even if they die in despair. E. M. Beals is building some fence.

E. E. Hamersly and A. T. Goodman ran a boat down the Alsea river, with a cargo of lumber and apples.

A Jamaican Lady Speaks Highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the superintendent of Carl Service at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies Islands, says that she has for some years used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, croup and whooping cough and has found it very beneficial. She has implicit confidence in it and would not be without a bottle of it in her home. Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

Simpson Creek and Chitwood.

The rural telephone is progressing nicely. Last week it was completed as far as A. L. Chitwood's place. It commences at Chitwood, runs to L. F. Pepin's; thence to A. L. McDonald's; thence to J. E. Wilson's; thence to the A. L. Chitwood place, which is leased to and occupied by M. L. Dickinson. There is also a branch running to the home of D. J. Chitwood, and we expect by the time this reaches the readers of this paper that we will have completed an extension to C. D. Wilson and R. L. Wildman's places. No doubt but there will be several others who will join in with us. Our interest in the line is mutual to all who have taken a part in it. All share equally by putting up an equal amount for material, then all do an equal amount of work and each one furnishes his own 'phone. We believe this will be a great saving of time in many ways and will soon save enough to fully compensate for the money invested.

M. H. Wilson has contracted with R. R. Wilson to grub and slash quite a tract of land on his, the former's, homestead. Ralph says he is the happiest man in Oregon since he has taken to himself a "better half," and thinks he is fully able to grub out a considerable amount of salmon brush and vine maple.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical or mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

Kernville Items.

Our young neighbor D. C. Bones is hauling lumber to build a new house on his claim. We can't see why the old one isn't good enough to batch in. Can you?

The folk of this neck o' the woods would like very much for the schooner Gerald C. to come into port with some grab.

Stock of all kinds has wintered fine so far. The feed in the hills is good and cattle running out are fat.

John Wolf and daughter have gone to the valley for a month or two.

Uncle Ammon Bones is preparing to build a new house.

School is progressing nicely.

Home cured hams at Stewart's Store.

PANTS AND VESTS.

The Difference Between Them and Trousers and Waistcoats.

Why do the trade journals ignore the word "pants," and what is the difference between "trousers" and "trousers" and between "vest" and "waistcoat?" asks a correspondent of the Clothier and Furnisher.

"Pants" is an abbreviation of "pantaloon," a word foisted upon us by the French, though possibly derived from the Italian "pantaleon," which, according to the poet Byron, has an ill defined connection with the lion of St. Mark's, in Venice. "Trousers" is old English modernized into "trousers," which is the proper spelling. "Vest" is an abbreviation of "vestment." Another poet, Oliver Wendell Holmes, traces it to Londoners in his line which says:

The dangerous waistcoat, called by cockneys "vest."

Gentle usage declares "pants" to be vulgar, though it and "pantaloon" and "vest" have their place in trade and so receive recognition. We end the matter with another quotation from Holmes: The thing named "pants" in certain documents,

A word not made for gentlemen, but "gents."

Early Bargain Sales.

There were bargain sales even when this country was in its early youth, but most of the bargains offered were choice lots of slaves to be disposed of at the old slave mart that stood at the foot of Wall street. In the New York Gazette of Dec. 24, 1767, one of the large slave holders makes this announcement:

German Slaves For Sale.—To be disposed of, three German servants, one a baker by trade, one a butcher and the other a laborer. They are industrious, good men, whose honesty has been tried, and they may be had on reasonable terms. Inquire of the printer hereof.

Not a Question of Seasons.

"How should we get married if there were no London season?" asked the debutante.

"Some of you would get married if you were bricked up in an ogre's castle and had to be rescued," said the American millionaire. "And ten seasons wouldn't marry the rest."—London Boudoir.
