The question of electing a United States Senator will not be settled at the primaries to be held April 20 nor at the June election. Any man who chooses to place his name before the Legislature as a candidate for that position may do so as heretofore, under the Constitution, and he will have just as much claim on the support of the members of that body as the man who comes before it with a little dinky plurality indorsement at the primaries. Little children, please remember this.

James Withycombe.

That Oregon Republican voters like good, honest, reliable state officers is illustrated by the popularity of Dr. James Withycombe's candidacy for governor. His aspirations at first were known to but few. His candidacy likewise was quietly announced but his strength grew from the first. Through his long and able connection with the state agricultural college he secured a wide acquaintance throughout the state and wherever he was known he was admired for his sterling integrity and honest purposes. If he is nominated he will defeat George Chamberlain easily. He is not a factional man. Has no enemies in either party and is a friend of the people on whom they may rely.—Pendleton Tribune, Mar. 16, 1906.

Hawley for Congress.

There is no better nor more able man to be up for election this year than Mr. Hawley. He will serve to the best of his ability the people of the state and the country, and deserves the support of the people who desire to see a man represent us in Congress who will be a powerful factor in just legislation, to whom graft will make no appeal, to whom we can look for an upright and fearless protection of our laws and rights, a man who is no mere flowery, meaningless speaker, but a powerful, hard-working leader, prominent in committees and in open debate.—Cottage Grove Leader.

Siletz Bay and Schooner Creek.

Arthur Combast, barber.
Miss Josa Bones is visiting at the home of Mrs. Andersen this week.
Mrs. George Parmele is quite sick with pneumonia.
The laboring people are busy making county road up Schooner creek this week.
Amon Bones of Drift river is erecting a new dwelling this week. Let the good work continue. Sure!
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ball were visiting at the home of Walter Bones Wednesday night.
Chappie, keep off the grass, and Phinley, keep off the fence. See?
L. C. Parmele and family were Schooner creek visitors last week.
Andrew Alingo has gone to Portland to secure work till his mother arrives from Europe, when they will return to his claim on Schooner creek.
R. H. Havalain, who has been laid up with a pet finger, is again able to work.
Chesley Bones lost a fine cow, poisoned by larkspur.
J. W. Bones has his new postoffice.
Misses Laura and Ella Bones and Neils Andersen were visiting with Mrs. Charles Robertson last week.

A musical entertainment was given by Miss Josa Bones, Neils Andersen and Arthur Combast at the home of C. F. Robertson. A large number of friends were present.

C. F. Hall will give a social dance on the evening of the 27th. All cordially invited.

People on Schooner creek are wishing the boat would hurry and come, as they are nearly out of grub and feed.

Jim Robertson, the county road supervisor, is overseeing the road work on Schooner and reports a fine piece of work done.

Johnson Items.

The farmers in these parts have been improving the time this fine weather.

Amon Bones has built a good-sized house on his homestead.

Mrs. G. S. Parmele was very low for a time and hope of recovery almost given up. She is a little better now and will be taken to the Portland San-tarium as soon as her condition will permit, and a surgical operation will be performed.

Supt. and Special Disbursing Agent, in Charge of Siletz Agency, Oregon.

It is good to see the weather warm up and rain again. The March freeze "scorched" the tender leaves that had put out, "wilted" the weeds, and, we fear, damaged the fruit.

Fall Creek Items.

Carlo Minotti is at work in his prune orchard.

Charley Wolf has been making some new fence.

N J Goodman was up Fall creek a few days ago on business.

D M Carns says he is going to turn over a new leaf. It will not be long, as the trees are budding.

Ben Ward and E E Hamersly have just finished shearing their goats. The snow and cold weather did not stop them, as they had shed room.

C E Carnes and family have moved back home again. They have been in Alsea for the past two months on account of schooling the children.

Glen Mangel, the Fall Creek and Alsea real estate man, has several farms for sale. The price of land has increased on account of the new railroad.

A party of five came from Portland last week and got timber claims. They were well pleased with Lincoln county timber and the good roads on Fall Creek.

Winzel Dieckhoff is back home again after being in Oregon City with his daughter, Mrs. Seole, for the past three months. He says there is no place like Fall creek.

Candidates that are going to run for office had better get their ads in the LEADER as soon as they can. D M Carns and A J Oglesby are going to run for office on the Democratic-Republican Socialist-Prohibition ticket. Ha! ha!

Eczema, Tetters, Salt Rheum, Itch, Ring Worm, Herpes, Barbers' Itch.

All of these diseases are attended by intense itching, which is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Salve, and by its continued use a permanent cure may be effected. It has, in fact, cured many cases that had resisted other treatment. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

U. S. Land Office at Portland, Or., February 17, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver at Portland, Oregon, on April 10, 1906, viz:

Matt Olsen Tuetep, H. E. No. 14103, for the ne 1/4 section 8, town-ship 9 s, range 9 w.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:

Ole Anderson, Wilbert W. Linton of Rocco, Oregon; O. Thanem and S. L. Svensen of Siletz, Oregon. ALGERSON S. DRESSER, Register.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned as administrator of the estate of Cornelius Sullivan, deceased, has filed his final account with the County Clerk of Lincoln county, Oregon, and that the County Court has fixed Monday, the 7th day of May, 1906, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. of said day for the final hearing of said account and the settlement of said estate. Any and all persons having objections thereto are hereby notified to be present at said time and place and present the same.

Dated this 17th day of March A. D. 1906. C. SULLIVAN, Administrator. WEATHERFORD & WYATT, Attorneys for Administrator.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy In His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.
