Antics of the Antis.

A bunch of the very wise business men of Portland are violently opposed to woman suffrage. They are awfully excited, and are blowing money, hot air and time lavishly in the effort to defeat the amendment in June. They have evidently employed C. V. Cooper (some of our citizens know Charlie) as one of the chief mixers and dispensers of hot air and distributors of boodle.

The following letter will give our readers an idea as to the methods of this noble band of women fighters:

PORTLAND, OR., May 17, 1906.
Editor LEADER—Dear Sir:

I am enclosing you two readers for your issues of 26th inst and June 1.

I figure that the first will cost $2.50, at the rate of 10 cents per line, for which I enclose my check. Please let me know whether I am correct, and forward receipt. Please also send bill for the second reader.

I would be glad to have your editorial assistance against this movement, as it is a great "menace" (that's awful, Charlie!) to the welfare of the entire state. Please do not "star" the article.

Yours very truly,
C. V. COOPER,
312 Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Cooper's editorials above referred to, which he does not want us to "star"—in other words, mark as advertisements—allege that "fully 90 per cent of the women do not want to vote," that "the introduction of 'women suffrage' (that's the way Charlie writes it) is radically wrong from any point of view;" that "in states where 'women suffrage' prevailed, experience has demonstrated that it has been disastrous to business in many ways."

There is a lot more of the same stuff, all containing about the same per cent of truth—and that isn't much.

THE LEADER has returned to Mr. Cooper his $2.50 check, and devotes this space to the misguided gentleman, without money and without price.

Boiled down, the Reporter's lengthy spill-overs regarding Mr. Swope seem to indicate that, in its opinion, Mr. Swope will not make a good County Judge because he knows something. This is not very complimentary to Mr. Stewart.

The Reporter last week accused the present County Court of constructing, or attempting to construct, a road through an impassible and impossible territory to County Clerk Wade's homestead. As Mr. Wade has no homestead, and was not in possession of one when that road proposition came up, our readers will be pardoned if they smile at the Reporter's expense. Furthermore, the road mentioned does not come nearer than three miles of the claim which Mr. Wade filed on, but relinquished. Smile again.

McKibben Caps, for Ladies, Gents, Boys and Children at Stewart's.

It is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

How often do we hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

AMOS O. HOOKER Democratic Nominee for County Treasurer.

If elected to the office of Treasurer promises the people his best efforts to please them, and will be satisfied with the present salary.
