Harlan Items.

It continues to rain. Grain and gardens are beginning to need a little sunshine. Strawberries are ripening very slowly, owing to the wet weather.
 Coyotes are still on the rampage. It seems they have come to stay. We run them all day with our dogs and they come back and kill lambs and kids at night. People are getting discouraged and are talking about selling their goats and sheep. Not very encouraging to cut off the revenue of the county. Better hold on boys and make up a bounty sufficient to induce men with long-winded dogs to come in and kill the coyotes. Don't sell your goats and sheep, they are too good property, and if we keep on narrowing down on them they only soar higher in value.

Miss Carmichele is in on a visit with her two brothers. They had a dance there Friday night and the young folks report a roaring good time. Joe Stevens was there, good natured as ever. Joe has run coyotes so much lately that he and old Sonder are getting right down into running trim.

J. F. Stewart passed through the valley looking up the telephone business. Of course he wanted to know how things are going the 4th of June.

L. W. Derrick came over from Fall Creek, where he has been visiting with his uncle Jack Oglesby and enjoying some fine fishing. He stopped over one day at B. F. Grant's and caught eighty-four of the speckled beauties.

The range may be good for goats and cattle this year but it is good for sheep too. Give them an equal chance and there is more money in what they eat than there is in goats or cattle either. Cattle are too slow and goats are only making sheep range. The day is coming when the goat range will be run out and there will be sheep in their place. Whenever the browse is gone and we have all grass it will not be profitable to keep goats for the reason there is more profit in sheep. They are less trouble and thrive better on grass.
 B. F. Grant says he did sign the petition to put it to a vote whether sheep should run on the range the same as other stock, but supposed there was voters enough in the county that are awake to the interests of all to kill such a proposition on June 4th.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by O. O. Krogsrud.

Plans and specifications to be submitted with said bids. The court reserves the right to reject any or all bids.
