(Too late for last week)

The free dance given by some of the Democratic candidates in A. J. Warneck's new barn, three miles west of Norton, Wednesday evening, May 23, was a great success. There were about 140 in attendance and all seemed to be enjoying themselves. Several said it was the best dance they ever attended. The floor was in fine condition and there was plenty of room for all who wished to dance. The music was furnished by the Summit Brass Band and Messrs. Whitaker, Miller and Underhill. Shortly after midnight the ladies spread a bountiful supper on some improvised tables in the middle of the building and all partook of a hearty supper. After all had eaten there was nearly enough victuals left to have fed another crowd as large. The crowd left about 5 a. m.

A. J. Warneck will give another dance June 15, to which all are invited.
