Toledo Won.

The Toledo baseball team and two or three professional rooters went down to Waldport on the 4th and took the team of that place down the line by a score of 16 to 13. The locals have many good words for the Waldport ball-tossers and citizens generally, who excelled in hospitality and courteous treatment. When the Waldporters came up for a return game, Toledo will not forget it.

Following is the line-up and score by innings:

| WALDPOR:                  | TOLEDO:                    |

SCORE BY INNINGS.

|---------------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|------|

| Toledo.....   | 4 | 0 | 2 | 3 | 0 | 0 | 3 | 0 | 3-16 |

Empire—Sheriff Ross.
Dr. Burgess, Toledo's first baseman, was badly injured, but finished the game. The accident came in the seventh inning, when Henry Howell of Waldport was trying to beat the throw of his infield hit to first. There was a collision, Howell's best knee landing over the Doctor's best vermiform appendix. The victim almost collapsed after the game and required assistance on the return trip. He is gradually recovering. Howell wasn't hurt a bit.

Attorney C. E. Hawkins of Toledo and Smoke Eagles of Albany also ran.

Superintendent W. A. Smith of the Big Elk hatchery near Elk City had business in Toledo last night. The LEADER will next week give its readers some interesting facts and figures relative to Mr. Smith's work, and also that of Master Fish Warden Van Dusen, the very capable officer whom Governor Chamberlain has slated for removal.

The Newport celebration was a success in every way, a large crowd being present from the Valley and Lincoln county points. It was the driest and most orderly Fourth-of-July celebration in the history of Lincoln county, and the "difference in the morning" wasn't as marked as in the wet and hilarious past. The shortage of inward fireworks didn't seem to mar the good time to any noticeable extent.
