Saved His Comrade's Life.

"While returning from the Grand Army Encampment at Washington City, a comrade from Elgin, Ill., was taken with cholera morbus and was in a critical condition," says Mr. J. E. Houghland, of Eldon, Iowa. "I gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and believed saved his life. I have been engaged for ten years in immigration work and conducted many parties to the south and west. I always carry this remedy and have used it successfully on many occasions." Sold by O. O. Krogstad.

Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.

When Mamim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise, instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery, pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

School Report.

Following is the report of the school in district No. 57, Lincoln county, Oregon:

Number enrolled, 11; number attending every day, 9; whole number of days' attendance, 263; whole number days' absence, 3.

Following are the names of those attending every day: Gideon, Nellie, Victoria and Mary Kobieliski, Harriet and Cornel Skladal, Irving, Richard and Genevieve Stenple.

The school gave an entertainment the evening of the Fourth of July. The program consisted of singing, speaking, marching, music and a flag drill. The little children looked very pretty in their George Washington hats, and they made a fine salute to "Old Glory." After the program came the fireworks and last, but not least, was the picnic supper, for which the mothers deserved and received praises. Everybody went home feeling the better for coming, and the children think more of the "Stars and Stripes" than ever before.

Old Chronic Sores.

As a dressing for old chronic sores there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Salve. While it is not advisable to heal old sores entirely, they should be kept in a good condition, for which this salve is especially valuable. For sore nipples Chamberlain's Salve has no superior.
