"Take Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.

An Interrupted Game of Poker.

Talking about America, here is a story I heard the other day. I can hardly believe it is true. I wouldn't, only a citizen of the great United States told it to me, says M. P. A.

John B. Bloggs and Silas K. Shuttle are both canned goods packers in Chicago. They are fierce rivals. They both happened to start off to "do Europe" at the same time. The other Sunday morning chance threw them into the same pew in a London church.

When the collection plate came around, Bloggs took it in his hand, put in a $5 bill, held it under the nose of Shuttle, and said: "I'll raise you anything you like to go."

Shuttle deposited a $10 bill.

Bloggs sat down, put the plate on his knee, and with cheerful alacrity took out his wallet to find $15.

And they might have been at it still if the horrified church warden had not interfered.

Of course, if you don't understand the American national game of "poker" you won't understand this story.

Notice to Bidders.

Notice is hereby given that the County Court of Lincoln county, Oregon, will receive up to 10 o'clock a. m. August 8, 1906. Irish Wit.

An Irishman, being arrested for striking a fellow-workman during an altercation, said: "Shure, yer honor. I didn't know that was anny harm in it. I had nothing in me hand but me fist."

Louis XIV asked Count Mahoney if he could speak Italian. "Yes, please, yer majesty," answered the Count, "if it's spoken in English."

"Here, you bog-trotter," said a dandy to an Irish laborer, "come tell me the biggest lie you ever told in your life, and I'll stand treat." "Be me sowl," said Pat, "yer honor's a real gentleman."

CONTEST NOTICE.

U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon.

July 24, 1906.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by T. A. McIntyre, contestant, against homestead entry No. 14185, made June 10, 1902, for n/2 sec 4 and lots 3 and 4, section 35, township 8 s, range 10 w, by William Faulhaber contestee, in which it is alleged that he is well acquainted with the land embraced in the said homestead entry and knows the present condition of the same; also that said entryman above named has never established his residence on the said tract of land, nor has he ever resided thereon at any time or at all, and has wholly abandoned the same for a period of more than six months; also that he has not cultivated or improved the same in any manner whatsoever, and the only improvements on the claim consist of a rude cabin, and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, and said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on September 19, 1906, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Portland, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed June 25, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Some whooping cough still in this locality.

Rufus Chitwood was a caller here Wednesday.

P. O. Shirley went to the Valley Wednesday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. Veit, July 21, a 9-pound daughter.

J. Veit & Sons have enlarged their stock of shoes at this place.

R. R. Wood has resumed brush slashing, having finished hauling hay.

Wakefield's dogs were the cause of the death of another bear on Trout creek Sunday.

Mr. Yoran of Eugene passed on his way home. He has been enjoying an outing at Newport.

Charles Wilson of Chitwood passed by here Tuesday in the interest of the Mutual Telephone Company, repairing breaks.

J. P. Stringer took the train for Albany Friday to prepare his household goods for shipment here, returning Tuesday.

J. M. Allphin of Portland spent a day recently with his sister, Mrs. A. L. Chitwood, of this place, whom he has not seen for over eleven years.

Charles Johnson, while using an ax Monday, made a miss lick at a pole, cut his foot, and is now using crutches. He should remember the old saying and never whittle toward himself.

Mr. C. H. Blaser and family from near Portland came in Tuesday and are visiting J. Veit. They are old acquaintances of the Veit family and it has been about twelve years since they met last. They expect to go on to Newport.

Hubert Derrick, who was in this locality recently, took the measles and exposed some of the people in this neighborhood. His mother and I. W. Derrick's little boy Berthal are both down with the malady now, and it is very likely there will soon be others.

True Socialism—The neighbors gave A. L. Chitwood a very helpful surprise July 31. Three teams and ten men came and hauled in twenty-nine loads of hay for him. A pleasant, social and profitable day was spent—one that Albert and friends will always remember. Eddyville people have sympathy for one that gets crowded with work.

D. D. Warnock had quite an experience with Wakeley's sheep dip. A few days ago his daughter mixed up some of the dip to dip a dog, and after dipping the dog left the can on a porch. Her father came along and, thinking it was swill, poured the contents of the pail in the trough. Five of his very choice shoats partook of the same and in a short time all were dead. There were some turnip peels in the trough and after cleaning the trough Mr. Warnock missed some of them and the sixth hog partook of them and narrowly escaped the boneyard.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

No one can reasonably hope for good digestion when the bowels are constipated. Mr. Chas. Baldwin, of Edwardsville, Ill., says: "I suffered from chronic constipation and stomach troubles for several years, but, thanks to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, am almost cured." Why not get a package of these tablets and get well and stay well? Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by O. O. Krogstad.
