CONTEST NOTICE.

U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon,
July 24, 1906.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by T. A. McIntyre, contestant, against homestead entry No. 14195, made June 10, 1902, for n/2 s/2 and lots 3 and 4, section 35, township 8 s., range 10 w., by William Paulhaber contestee, in which it is alleged that he is well acquainted with the land embraced in the said homestead entry and knows the present condition of the same; also that said entryman above-named has never established his residence on the said tract or land, nor has he ever resided thereon at any time or at all, and has wholly abandoned the same for a period of more than six months; also that he has not cultivated or improved the same in any manner whatsoever, and the only improvements on the claim consist of a rude cabin, and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, and said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on September 19, 1906, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Portland, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed June 26, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Will Initiate "Dad."

The eleven sons of a 77-year old parent in Iowa are preparing to get even on their sire. The boys are all members of the Red Cedar Lodge, K. of P. No. 83, and they have induced their father to join and they propose to initiate him. Steward is the name of this remarkable family. One of the sons, J. R. Steward, is at present Grand Vice-Chancellor of Iowa.

The case is one of the most interesting in lodge history in the United States. The eleven sons will not only fill all the chairs during the initiation, but they will perform all the rank work and in fact conduct the ceremonies from start to finish. Probably such an occurrence has never before been known in lodge circles in the entire country. That Father Steward will get the "worth of his money" is not to be doubted. It is probable that the eleven sons have waited years to "get even" with the old gentleman and this will afford an opportunity.—Ex.
